PLAN AND PURPOSE OF THE UNIVERSITY.

CORPORATE RIGHTS.

The University was incorporated with full University privileges by the Legislature of Pennsylvania, in an Act approved by the Governor on the fifth day of February, A. D. 1846. The management of the University is committed to a Board of Trustees, consisting of twenty-five members, or fewer at the option of the Board. The trustees are prohibited, for any cause or under any pretext whatever, from encumbering by mortgage or otherwise the real estate or any other property of the Institution. It is required by the charter that no religious sentiments are to be counted a disability to hinder the election of an individual to any office among the teachers of the Institution, or to debar persons from attendance as pupils, or in any manner to abridge their privileges or immunities as students in any department of the University.

ENDOWMENT.

The Institution has productive funds amounting to over $400,000. The endowment funds, raised at various times, were increased, in 1881, to an even $200,000. William Bucknell contributed to the general fund $115,000, and for scholarships and prizes about $25,000. One hundred thousand dollars additional endowment was raised in 1892. In 1900, a fund of $75,000 for additional endowment and improvement was completed. The total property of the Institution, aggregating over $750,000, has all been contributed by individuals. The University has received no aid from the State.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

To persons desiring to aid in increasing the efficiency of the schools in the work of preparing young men and young women for usefulness, the following form of bequest is recommended :

I give and bequeath to the Bucknell University, at Lewisburg, Pa., the sum of.....dollars for the general purpose of said school, according to the Act of Assembly incorporating the same.

ORGANIZATION.

The University aims to impart sound instruction in all non-professional studies. It comprises four departments.

I. The College offers four Courses of study, leading respectively to degrees in Arts, Philosophy, and Science, and is open to both sexes.

II. The Institute for young women has three Courses of study, the Literary, the Classical, and the Scientific, leading to diplomas which admit to the Sophomore year in the College.

III. The Academy is designed to fit young men for College, either for the Classical, Philosophical, or Scientific course.

IV. The School of Music has full Courses in instrumental and vocal music, and grants diplomas to those who complete any of the specified Courses.

These schools are one corporation, have one President, who has general charge, with a Principal in more immediate charge of each of the subordinate departments. All expenses are met from funds in the hands of a common treasurer.

THE UNIVERSITY PROPERTY.

I. THE MAIN COLLEGE.

The main College building is situated on a hill one hundred feet above the Susquehanna River, and overlooks scenery of unsurpassed beauty. It was designed by Thomas U. Walter, LL. D., architect of the dome and wings of the Capitol at Washington, D. C., and is in the Grecian style, combining dignity and simplicity. The building has a façade of three hundred and twenty feet. The central portion is eighty feet square, and is strengthened in front by four massive columns. On the first floor are six recitation rooms. On the second floor are the halls of the Theta Alpha and Euepia Literary Societies, the Library-rooms, Reading-room, and Museum of Natural History.

In the third story is Commencement Hall, with a seating capacity of fifteen hundred.

The wings on the eastern and western sides, respectively, of the Main Building, are each one hundred and twenty feet in length, and four stories in height, and are used for students' rooms. The stories above the first are provided with fire escapes.

Several thousand dollars have been expended recently in improving the College building.

II. THE WEST COLLEGE.

The West College was ready for occupancy at the opening of the school year, September 20th, 1900. It is constructed of brick, four stories in height, and contains ninety-seven rooms, one of which is a hall for the use of the Young Men's Christian Association, another a reading-room, and the others are designed for the residence of students.

III. THE BUCKNELL HALL.

Bucknell Hall is the Chapel of the University. In it all the students of the College meet daily for worship. The exercises consist in the reading of Scripture, in singing, and in prayer.

IV. THE OBSERVATORY.

The Observatory was erected in 1887, and is designed for the use of students in Practical Astronomy.

The equipment represents the latest improvements in astronomical instruments. It consists of a Clark Equatorial Telescope of 10 inches aperture and $12\frac{1}{2}$ feet focal length, furnished with a fine position Micrometer and all the usual accessories; a Spectroscope, with prism and grating by Brashear; a 3-inch prismatic Transit, with a 13-wire movable Micrometer; a Fauth Chronograph with Bond Spring Governor; a Waldo Precision Clock for sidereal time, with mercurial compensation, break circuiting apparatus; Daniell's battery and telegraph sounders; a Seth Thomas Clock for solar time; a Sextant; a 3-inch Altitude Azimuth Refractor; a set of Meteorological instruments; Celestial globes and maps, and standard works on Theoretical and Practical Astronomy.

V. THE LABORATORY.

The Laboratory was erected in 1890, and is a building forty-three feet in width and eighty-six feet in length, with two stories above the basement. In the first story, which has a clear height of fifteen feet, are a lecture-room, with seating for one hundred and twenty-five students, and a large working-room, in which are tables for individual work in Chemical Analysis; the second floor contains a lecture-room for the class in Physics, and rooms for laboratory work in Organic Science; the basement has a dark room for Photometry, a room for Applied Chemistry, another for Electricity, and a fire-proof room.

VI. THE TUSTIN GYMNASIUM.

The basement of the Gymnasium is built of stone, and contains rooms for students' lockers, dressing-rooms, and shower baths. The second story is built of brick, rising twenty-two feet from the main floor to the square and is open to the roof. At the height of twelve feet a running-track gallery, six feet wide, surrounds the room.

VII. THE UNIVERSITY ATHLETIC FIELD.

The field is conveniently located at the foot of "College Hill," and has been graded and fitted up for out-door sports. In the northwest corner, at the main entrance to the college grounds, a shaded section has been set aside for tennis. The athletic field is sufficiently large for foot-ball, base-ball, and lacrosse. A running track, a quarter-mile in length, has been constructed on the eastern part of the campus. The Tustin Gymnasium is located at the end of the field, so as to be near the centre of exercise, and easily accessible to the trainers and students.

VIII. THE ACADEMY.

1. The Main Building of the Academy is situated on "College Hill," and is fifty feet in width by eighty feet in length, and three stories in height. On the first floor is a dining-room, thirty feet by thirty-six feet; two recitation-rooms, a reception room and the Principal's office; on the second floor are suites of rooms for the Principal and his family and for the Matron; the third floor is occupied by students' rooms. These are twenty feet by twelve feet, and fourteen feet high.

2. The East Hall of the Academy is the Bucknell Cottage for young men, and is contiguous to the main building and connected with it by a covered passage-way. It is of brick, three stories high, sixty feet in length and forty feet in width, and is finished in natural wood. The building contains a recitation-room, teachers' apartments, and rooms for students. The rooms have high ceilings, large double windows with inside shutters and two commodious closets each.

Both buildings are supplied with hot and cold water and are warmed by steam.

IX. THE DEPARTMENT FOR WOMEN.

The buildings and campus of this department are set apart to the use of women taking courses in the College, in the Institute, and in the School of Music.

1. The Main Building contains, on the first floor, an office for the Principal and the Registrar, a reception-room, the office of the Director of Music, five music-rooms, two recitation-rooms, and a dining-hall; on the second floor a school-room and a parlor; on the third floor a library-room, teachers' apartments, and students' rooms.

2. The South Hall, erected in 1869, is devoted to students' rooms, except the third story, which is used as a gymnasium. This gymnasium has been lately improved and equipped.

3. The Bucknell Cottage stands to the southwest of the Main Building, and is connected with it by an enclosed passageway. It is built of brick, in the Queen Anne style of architecture, and has dimensions of thirty-three feet by one hundred feet. The interior is finished in natural wood, and is equipped, in matters of light, heat, and ventilation, with modern improvements.

The portion allotted to students' rooms affords accommodations for forty occupants. These rooms are in suites on the general plan of a centre parlor, with bed-rooms and closets on either side. In this building is the Studio, a spacious room with such adjustments for the admission of light and supply of unencumbered wall surfaces as adapt it for the execution and display of art products.

All the buildings are supplied with hot and cold water, and are warmed by steam.

4. The Campus of the Women's Department comprises six acres, separated from the college grounds by Loomis Street.

X. HEATING AND LIGHTING PLANT.

A central steam heating and electric lighting plant was begun in the fall of 1900; and it is expected that all the rooms, public and private, in the several buildings of the Institution will be warmed from this plant at the opening of the school year, September 18th, 1901.

XI. THE PRESIDENT'S HOUSE.

The Corporation also owns a house for the use of the President of the University.

ADMISSION.

TO FRESHMAN STANDING.

EXAMINATIONS.

Examinations for admission to the Freshman Class will be held on Monday of Commencement week. Candidates will assemble in Bucknell Hall at 8.30 A.M.

Similar examinations are also held on the day preceeding the opening of each term. In special cases, candidates may be examined and admitted at other times in the year.

There must be furnished to the President by the candidate satisfactory testimonials of good moral character, and, if from another college, a certificate of honorable dismissal must be presented.

The required age for admission to the Freshman Class is fifteen years.

I. GENERAL REQUIREMENTS.

Candidates for admission to any of the courses must pass examinations in the following :

1. ENGLISH.

- a.* Writing from dictation.
- b.* English Grammar.
- c.* Elements of Rhetoric—Invention, Style, and Punctuation.
- d.* A brief composition upon a subject assigned at the time of the examination. No candidate will be accepted in English whose work is notably defective in spelling, punctuation, idiom, or division into paragraphs.
- e.* Reading.—A certain number of books are set for reading. The candidate will be required to present evidence of a general knowledge of the subject-matter, and to answer simple questions on the lives of the authors. The form of examination will usually be the writing of a paragraph or two on each of several topics, to be chosen by the candidate from a considerable number—perhaps ten or fifteen—set before him in the examination paper. The treatment of these topics is designed to test the candidate's power of clear and accurate expression, and will call for only a general knowledge of the substance of the books. In place of a part or the whole of this test, the candidate may present an exercise book, properly certified by his instructor, containing compositions or other written work done in connection with the reading of the books. In preparation for this part of the requirement, it is important that the candidate shall have been instructed in the fundamental principles of Rhetoric.

In 1901 and 1902: Shakspeare's Merchant of Venice, Pope's Iliad, books i, vi, xxii, and xxiv, the Sir Roger De Coverley Papers in the Spectator, Goldsmith's Vicar of Wakefield, Coleridge's Ancient Mariner, Scott's Ivanhoe, Cooper's Last of the Mohicans, Tennyson's Princess, Lowell's Vision of Sir Launfal, and George Eliot's Silas Marner.

In 1903, 1904, and 1905: Shakspeare's Merchant of Venice and Julius Cæsar, the Sir Roger De Coverley Papers in the Spectator, Goldsmith's Vicar of Wakefield, Coleridge's Ancient Mariner, Scott's Ivanhoe, Carlyle's Essay on Burns, Tennyson's Princess, Lowell's Vision of Sir Launfal, and George Eliot's Silas Marner.

f. Study and Practice.—This part of the examination presupposes the thorough study of each of the works named below. The examination will be upon subject-matter, form and structure.

The books set for this part of the examination will be:

In 1901, 1902, 1903, 1904, and 1905: Shakspeare's Macbeth, Milton's Lycidas, Comus, L'Allegro and Il Penseroso, Burke's Speech on Conciliation with America, and Macaulay's Essays on Milton and Addison.

The candidate is encouraged to do reading parallel and subsidiary to the books mentioned above; he is recommended to commit to memory as much English poetry as possible, and to pay close attention to the essentials of Grammar.

2. MATHEMATICS.

a. Arithmetic, including the Metric System.

b. Algebra, including Quadratic Equations. The requirements in this study are intended to include the treatment of Radicals, and will be most nearly met by the use of Wells' University Algebra.

c. Plane Geometry as in Wentworth.

3. LATIN.

a. Latin Grammar—Allen and Greenough's, Harkness', or Bennett's.

b. Daniell's Latin Prose Composition.

c. Four books of Cæsar's Commentaries.

4. HISTORY.

a. History of Rome.

b. History of Greece.

c. History of the United States.

5. GEOGRAPHY—Descriptive, and Political, and Physical.

6. FREE-HAND DRAWING.

II. PARTICULAR REQUIREMENTS.

A. To enter the Classical Course, the candidate, in addition to the General Requirements, must pass examination in the following :

1. GREEK.

- a. Greek Grammar—Hadley and Allen's or Goodwin's;
- b. The equivalent of Jones' Greek Prose Composition—(20 lessons);
- c. Greek Reader;
- d. Four Books of Xenophon's Anabasis;
- e. Three Books of the Iliad.

2. LATIN.

- a. Six Orations of Cicero;
- b. Six Books of the Æneid.

3. SCIENCE.

- a. Physics;
- b. Physiology.

B. To enter the Latin division of the Philosophical Course, the candidate, in addition to the General Requirements, must pass examination in the following :

1. LATIN.

- a. Six Orations of Cicero;
- b. Six Books of the Æneid.

2. Any six units selected from group E.

C. To enter the Greek division of the Philosophical Course, the candidate, in addition to the General Requirements, must pass examination in the following :

1. GREEK.

- a. Greek Grammar—Hadley and Allen's or Goodwin's;
- b. The equivalent of Jones' Greek Prose Composition—(20 lessons);
- c. Greek Reader;
- d. Four Books of Xenophon's Anabasis;
- e. Three Books of Homer's Iliad.

2. Any six units selected from group E.

D. To enter the Scientific Course, the candidate, in addition to the General Requirements, must pass examination in the following :

1. GERMAN OR FRENCH.

The Grammar of the Language, Composition, and translation at sight of easy prose.

2. Any nine units selected from group E.

E. Candidates for admission to the Philosophical Course or to the Scientific Course may present in the case of the former six units, in case of the latter nine units, selected from the following:

English Literature as in Pancoast; History of Modern Europe as in Myers' General History; History of England as in Guest; Civics as in Macy; Physics as in Sharpless and Philips; Physiology as in Martin's Briefer Course; Zoölogy as in Packard's Elements; Physiography as in Davis; Botany as in Gray; Geology as in Le Conte's Elements; Astronomy as in Young's Lessons; Chemistry with Laboratory practice; French (three units); German (three units).

The time requirement for a unit is five hours a week for a term of twelve weeks.

ADMISSION ON CERTIFICATE.

Graduates of Bucknell Institute, in any of the courses will be admitted to the Sophomore year of the corresponding course in the College.

Graduates from Bucknell Academy, in any of the courses, will be admitted to the corresponding courses in the College upon the Diploma of the Academy.

Graduates of Pennsylvania State Normal Schools are admitted to the Scientific Course without examination.

Students who have completed a course of study in preparatory schools of high grade may be admitted upon the certificate of the Principal of the school from which they come without examination upon the subjects specified in the certificate.

All students received upon certificate are regarded as in conditional standing, and will not be matriculated unless their work during the first ten weeks of the term shall show that their preparation has been sufficiently thorough.

SPECIAL STUDENTS.

Students who do not desire to take a full regular course can enter and select special shorter courses with the sanction of the Faculty; but in all cases, satisfactory examinations must be passed upon the subjects required for admission to the Freshman Class of the Course from which they intend to select.

ADVANCED STANDING.

I. General Requirements.—A proportionate increase of age is required for admission to advanced classes over that required for admission to Freshman standing. Other general requirements are the same as for admission to the Freshman Class.

II. Particular Requirements.—Candidates for admission to advanced classes are examined both as for admission to Freshman standing and also on the studies that have been pursued by the class which they desire to enter.

MATRICULATION.

Matriculation gives membership in the college and is a condition precedent to all degrees and honors as well as to honorable dismissal. No student is admitted to matriculation until he has shown by his class-work during at least ten weeks and by his deportment that he is worthy of membership in the College.

HONORABLE DISMISSION.

No person will be dismissed from the College as in good standing who leaves it while under censure; and papers of dismissal given to those leaving while under a condition shall either be given as of a date anterior to the term during which that condition was incurred, or shall distinctly mention the condition; nor will honorable dismissal be granted to any student who has not discharged all his pecuniary obligations to the institution.

COURSES OF STUDY.

The Bucknell College offers four courses of study leading to degrees in Arts, Philosophy, and Science. Each of the Courses extends through four years. For the Bachelor's degree, thirty-six courses, each of one term five hours a week must be presented, as well as the prescribed work in oral and written Expression, the former of which extends through two years of the course and the latter through four years.

I. The Classical Course, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, aims to furnish a liberal education in classical and modern Literature, in the Sciences and Arts. Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts must present at least three courses in German and French.

II. The Philosophical Course, with Latin or Greek in each of its two divisions, aims to furnish a thorough training in advanced studies to those who desire to pursue but one of the Ancient Languages. Those who have completed the studies of the Course, including not less than four courses of German and French, are admitted to the degree of Bachelor of Philosophy.

III. The Scientific Course, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science, is substantially the same as the Philosophical Course, with the substitution of additional Modern Language and Scientific Studies for Latin and Greek. Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Science must present at least one year of German or French for admission and at least four courses of college work in German and French as requisites for graduation.

IV. Advanced Courses in Literature, Philosophy, and Science have been established, leading respectively to the degrees of Master of Arts, Master of Philosophy, and Master of Science. Particulars may be learned by addressing the President.

DEPARTMENTS OF INSTRUCTION.

The method of instruction in the College is partly by text-books and partly by lectures, according to the nature of the subject. Each Professor has his individual mode of imparting knowledge, and this, in the result, is advantageous to the learner. In general, the aim is to discuss each subject as far as possible as the subject-matter requires, yet all branches are presented practically, comparatively, and historically, with the view of leading the student to the apprehension of the subject as a whole and in its organic relations. The range and character of the instruction can be gathered from the following account of the different departments:

I. PHILOSOPHY.

THE PRESIDENT.

The studies in this department embrace Psychology, Philosophy, Ethics, Theism and Education.

1. Psychology, Descriptive and Explanatory. Required course, Juniors. First term, five hours.

2. Physiological and Experimental Psychology. Elective to Seniors and Juniors. First term, five hours.—PROFESSOR DAVIS.

3. Comparative and Child Psychology. Elective to Seniors and Juniors. Second term, five hours.—PROFESSOR DAVIS.

5. Philosophy of Mind. Elective to Seniors and Juniors. Second term, five hours.

6. History of Philosophy. Lectures. Required of Juniors. Second term, two hours.

7. Greek Philosophy (Greek 10). Elective to Seniors and Juniors.—PROFESSOR HAMBLIN.

8. Roman Philosophy (Latin 12). Elective to Seniors and Juniors.—PROFESSOR ROCKWOOD.

9. Modern Philosophy, Weber. Honor Course, Seniors and Juniors. Third Term.

10. Ethics. Required of Juniors. Second term, four hours.

11. Philosophy of Religion. Required of Juniors. Third term, five hours.

12. History of Education, Lectures. Required of Juniors. First term, one hour.

13. Psychology of Education. Honor, Seniors and Juniors. Second term, one hour.

14. Philosophy of Education, Rosenkranz. Honor, Seniors and Juniors. Third term, one hour.

II. LOGIC AND ANTHROPOLOGY.

WILLIAM EMMET MARTIN, A. M., PROFESSOR.

1. Elementary Logic, optional to Juniors, is offered in the second term. This course is designed to utilize (1) the valuable discipline inherent in the study of the science of thought; (2) the practical application of its principles in the analysis of arguments and the conduct of the search for truth; (3) the knowledge of the historical development of the science in the hands of its great masters; and (4) its valuable aid as preparatory to the study of Philosophy and Ethics.

The Manual of Professor Creighton will be supplemented by reading in the standard authors, with constant praxis in the detection of fallacious arguments.

2. Logical Theories, an advanced course in the history and criticism of Logic, ancient and modern, is offered as an honor study, in the third term of the Junior year, to such students as shall have taken course 1.

3. Descriptive Anthropology is offered to the Sophomore class during the third term. It is designed to prepare the student for the appreciative study of Ethnology and Languages, of Archæology and History. Tylor's text-book serves as the basis of study, with readings and discussions on the chief authorities and current publications.

4. Anthropology with special reference to the origin and development of Art, Science, and Religion, is offered to Juniors and Seniors in the first term as an honor course.

5. Sociology.—A course in Sociology, elective to Juniors and Seniors, is given in the fall term. The aim is to furnish such expositions of social relations and theories as will serve the general purposes of educated citizens.

6. Sociology.—Honor course. Open to students who have taken Course 5.

7. Sociology.—A course of lectures on Sociology from the Christian point of view, is given each year by Lemuel Moss, LL. D., to the whole College. A special honor course is also offered in connection with the lectures.

8. Sanitary Science.—An elective course in Sanitary Science, open to Seniors and Juniors, is given by Professor Groff in the fall term.

9. History of Art.—In the second term, elective to Seniors and Juniors is offered a course in the history, theory, and criticism of the Fine Arts, as represented by Architecture and Sculpture; their origin, development, and principles; their relation to the literary, religious, and social life, of the people; their present place and function. Instruction by text-book will be supplemented by collateral readings in the standard works, and illustrated by photographic and other representations of the originals.

III. ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL SCIENCE.

EPHRAIM M. HEIM, PH. D., PROFESSOR.

1. Principles of Political Economy.—An exposition of the laws of the Science as at present accepted. Second term; open to Seniors and Juniors.

2. Railroad Transportation.—Relation of Railways to Investors, to the Public, and to the Law. Theory of Rates. Methods of State Control. First term; open to Seniors and Juniors.

3. Private Corporations.—Corporate problems, economic and legal. Trusts and Industrial Combinations. Third term; alternating with Course 4.

4. Public Finance.—Financial Administration. Theories and Methods of Taxation. Public Debts. Third term; alternating with course 3.

5. Municipal Government.—Organization of City Government. Problems of Administration. Municipal Functions. Relation to the State. Second term.

6. American Civics and Parliamentary Law.—A study of the American Frame of Federal and State Government; and of Parliamentary rules and usages.—PROFESSOR HULLEY.

7. Comparative Constitutional Law is offered as an elective to Juniors and Seniors in the third term, alternating with American Constitutional Law. A comparison of the Constitutions of England, France, Germany, and the United States. Works of reference: Burgess, Boutney, Dicey. Special topics assigned for individual study and report to the class.—PROFESSOR HAMBLIN.

8. American Constitutional Law is offered as an elective to Seniors and Juniors in alternate years, third term. The work consists in a study of the Constitution itself, and in a study of the law that has grown out of it. Cooley's Elements of Constitutional Law.—PROFESSOR HAMBLIN.

9. Roman Law may be taken as an elective in the Second term; open to Seniors and Juniors. The subject is treated historically. Morey's Roman Law forms the basis of the work. The text-book is supplemented by lectures and collateral reading.—PROFESSOR ROCKWOOD.

10-12. The English Common Law.—A course in Blackstone's Commentaries, extending through the year; open to Seniors and Juniors.—JUDGE MCCLURE.

13. Principles of International Law.—Fall term; open to Seniors and Juniors.

HONOR COURSES IN LATIN.

13. Cicero: Letters; De Officiis; Brutus.

15. Quintilian: Books I, X, and XII.

15. Tertullian: The Apology.

16. Comparative Philology: An introductory course; text-book and lectures.

VII. THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE.

ENOCH PERRINE, LITT. D., PROFESSOR.

COURSES.

1. Rhetoric.—Genung's Practical Rhetoric, pp. 1-300, and Genung's Rhetorical Analysis. Analysis of themes, criticisms of plans, and exercises in all the forms of Composition discussed, are required. Opportunity is afforded for an extended study of the best forms of modern English Prose. First term, Sophomore year, five hours a week.

2. English Literature.—Pancoast's Introduction to English Literature, or Painter's Introduction to English Literature. The authors studied and the texts required are Shakespeare's As You Like It, Milton's Comus, Pope's Essay on Criticism, Wordsworth's Ode on Immortality, and Tintern Abbey, and Tennyson's Ode on the Death of the Duke of Wellington, and some of the Lyrics. Courses in collateral reading will be assigned on application, the aim being to bring the student in contact with those representative authors who illustrate the great movements of their times. Second term. Sophomore year, five hours a week.

3. English Oratory.—A careful study of the English Orators is made, as far as time permits, with reference to the peculiarities of each period, and especially to those of the present day. Ringwalt's Modern American Oratory, and Genung's Practical Rhetoric, cap. vii-viii, will be pursued in connection with Sears' The Occasional Address. As this is one of the electives of the third term, there is opportunity for an extended course, and readings in the older oratory will be assigned, based upon Sears' History of Oratory. Informal lectures are given on the Essentials of Eloquence, and at the close of the term an oration of not less than two thousand words is required of each student. The Library has recently been enriched in this department. Third term, Sophomore year, five hours a week.

4. Advanced Composition for those who have taken courses 1 and 2. Text-books, Scott and Denny's Paragraph-Writing, Genung's Practical Rhetoric, pp. 300-406 : Carpenter's Advanced Composition, Lamont's Specimens of Exposition, Brewster's Specimens of Narration, and Baldwin's Specimens of Prose Description. Second term, five hours a week.

5. Anglo-Saxon.—Bright's Anglo-Saxon Reader, and Smith's Old English Grammar. In addition to the literature of the period, special attention will be paid to the connection between Old English and Modern English, reference being had to Emerson's History of the English Language and Lounsbury's English Language. The subject may be continued through another term, when the whole of Beowulf may be read. For collateral reading, Freeman's Old English History and Gardiner's Students' History of England are recommended. First term, Senior year. Open to those who have taken courses 1 and 2.

6. Shakspeare.—A study of the dramatic form in Midsummer Night's Dream, Hamlet, and the Tempest, to show the development of the poet's mind and art. Constant reference is made to Dowden's Primer of Shakspeare, Dowden's Shakspeare: his Mind and Art, and the Variorum editions of Furness. Various Shakesperean clubs among the students afford opportunity for further practical work. Third term, Senior year, for those who have taken courses 1 and 2.

7. The Essay.—Lectures are given on Monday mornings during the whole of the first and second terms to the Freshmen on "The Essay," as an especial preparation for the practical work of the course, and supplementary, to the work assumed to have been done in the preparatory schools. Pearson's Principles of Composition is required, upon which regular recitations will be made.

8. English Composition.—In addition to the work required in Course 7, the Freshmen write two essays in the first term, and three essays in the second and third terms, of not less than eight hundred words, based upon the English readings required for entrance ; the Sophomores write three essays each term ; the Juniors, two orations or forensics, and the Seniors, one oration or forensic, each term. The orations presented at the exercise of the Junior Exhibition and Commencement will be received as two of the required orations. Both Essays and Orations are criticised with the author, if necessary ; and in all cases an analysis must be presented.

9. American Literature.—During the third term lectures are given to the Seniors on Bryant, Hawthorne, Longfellow, Lowell, Whittier, and Holmes, as a preparation for those who desire more extended courses in the subject. In this course an attempt is made to give a rapid sketch of the history of American Literature, the authors above mentioned being considered as convenient points of departure. Painter's or Pancoast's Introduction to American Literature is recommended. Other courses will be given when desired by students.

HONOR COURSES.

10. Chaucer, his language and thought. A study of Middle English forms and pronunciation, for those who have taken courses 1 and 2, two hours a week with required thesis on an approved topic. The Globe edition of Chaucer's works is used.

11. Milton's Paradise Lost.—A study of the epic. R. C. Browne's Milton, or Himes' Paradise Lost, and S. A. Brooke's Life of Milton, with required theses, for those who have taken courses 1 and 2. Two hours a week.

12. Literary Criticism.—Winchester's "Principles of Literary Criticism." Two hours a week. For those who have taken courses 1 and 2.

13. The Development of English Prose.—A study of its various forms from Bacon to Holmes, based on Clark's A Study of English Prose Writers. Two hours a week.

14. Skeat's Specimens of English Literature, 1394-1579, for those who have taken courses 1 and 2. Two hours a week.

15. Skeat's Piers the Plowman, for those who have taken courses 1, 2, and 5. Two hours a week.

16. The Ormulum and The Ancren Riwe, Sweet's edition, for those who have taken courses 1, 2 and 5. Two hours a week.

17. Argumentation.—Text book, Baker's Principles of Argumentation. Two hours a week.

18. Special Research.—Any student sufficiently advanced may pursue a special line of investigation in some restricted field of English or American literature, under direction of the department.

VIII. ELOCUTION AND ORATORY.

VINCENT BARRETT FISK, A. M., INSTRUCTOR.

The aim is to train the student to speak effectively in the pulpit or upon the platform or at the bar. All instruction is based on the principle that impression precedes and determines expression. Each student receives individual attention during the first half of the course in Elocution, during the latter half, in Oratory. Special attention is given to Debate. Every student is urged to take an active part in the work of the Literary Societies, and credit is given for work done in them.

FRESHMEN.

Vocal Training.—Exercises in breathing and selections for the development of the voice. First term.

Vocal Training.—The work in the development of the voice is continued with exercises in Phonology. Second term.

Description and Gesture.—Selections in Description are delivered and Pantomimic Expression begun. Third term.

A prize is awarded to the young man and one to the young woman of the Freshman Class who excels in the delivery of an assigned selection in description.

SOPHOMORES.

Narration and Pantomimic Expression.—Selections in Narration will be studied and delivered. First term.

Argumentation and Narration.—The principles and delivery of argumentative discourse will be studied. Second term.

Argumentation.—Each student will be required to debate at least twice. Third term.

A prize is awarded to the young man of the Sophomore Class who shall excel in the delivery of an assigned selection in argumentation.

A prize is awarded to the young woman of the Sophomore Class who shall excel in the delivery of an assigned selection in narration.

Oratorical Delivery.—This course includes respiration, cultivation of the voice, pronunciation, and the principles of vocal and gestural expression. Theory is secondary to practice. The student receives daily drill in the different modes of expression.

Text-book: Principles of Vocal Expression, Chamberlain and Clark. Reference is made to Curry's Imagination and Dramatic Instinct, Curry's Province of Expression, Fénelon's Pulpit Eloquence, Brookings and Ringwalt's Briefs for Debate.

Elective. Third term, five hours. Open also to Seniors and Juniors.

JUNIORS.

Prize Contest.—A prize contest in oratory is held in the third term by Juniors, appointed on the ground of superiority in Composition and Elocution as shown during the preceding terms of the College course.

Honors in Debate.—During the year there are three debates by Juniors, the last of which is a prize and honor debate.

SENIORS.

Prize in Oratory.—A prize is offered for the best oration of those delivered by the Senior orators at Commencement, regard being had equally to subject-matter, style, and delivery.

Honors in Debate.—During the year there are three debates by Seniors, the last of which is an honor debate.

Extemporaneous Speaking.—A course is offered in Parliamentary Law and Extemporaneous Speaking, the aim of which is to familiarize the student with parliamentary usage in theory and practice, and to develop by daily exercises ability in extemporaneous speaking.

Elective to Seniors and Juniors, third term.

IX. MODERN LANGUAGES.

FREEMAN LOOMIS, PH. D., PROFESSOR.

ELYSEE AVIRAGNET, A. M., INSTRUCTOR IN THE ROMANCE LANGUAGES.

EPHRAIM M. HEIM, PH. D., INSTRUCTOR IN GERMAN.

THEODORE ELY HAMILTON, A. M., INSTRUCTOR IN THE GERMAN AND FRENCH LANGUAGES.

Courses of study and text-books used in connection therewith are subject to change, but the following outline indicates the general scope of the work.

A. GERMAN.

1. Elementary Course.—Whitney's Brief Grammar, with translation of German exercises into English. Review of Grammar, with translation of English exercises into German. Irregular verbs. Memorizing of selected passages. Writing from dictation. Storm's Sprechübungen. Translation of one hundred pages of the Reader.

2. Intermediate Prose Course.—Devoted chiefly to the rapid reading of easy prose, with a view of acquiring an enlarged vocabulary and preparatory to the reading of the classics. Hauff's Das Kalte Herz. Riehl's Der Fluch der Schönheit. Storm's Immensee. Heyse's l'Arrabbiata. Hoffmann's Historische Erzählungen. Translation at sight. Balladen und Romanzen. Prose Composition.

3. Schiller's Works.—Maria Stuart, Wilhelm Tell, Jungfrau von Orleans, Wallenstein. Collateral reading in historical prose. Deutsche Lyrik. Prose Composition.

4. Goethe's Works.—Egmont, Iphigenie auf Tauris, Tasso. Collateral reading. Scientific German. Helmholtz's Über Goethe's Naturwissenschaftliche Arbeiten; Cohn's Über Bakterien; and other monographs. Prose Composition.

5. Goethe's Faust I.—A review of the facts known concerning the historical Dr. Faust, of the genesis and development of the legend, prefaces a critical reading and interpretation of Goethe's Faust.

6. Lessing's Works.—Minna von Barnhelm, Nathan der Weise, Lessing's Prose. Collateral reading. Prose Composition.

7. Modern Authors.—Selections from the works of Fouqué, Körner, Tieck, Heine, Freiligrath, Auerbach, Baumbach, Seidel, Scheffel. The Romantic School. Prose Composition.

8. Advanced Prose Course.—Designed to give facility in translating difficult prose. Meyer's Gustav Adolph's Page. Freytag's Doktor Luther. Lessing's Laocoön. Freytag's Technik des Dramas. History of German Literature. Prose Composition.

B. FRENCH.

1. Elementary Course.—Whitney's Brief Grammar with translations of French Exercises into English. Review of Grammar, with translation of English Exercises into French. Irregular verbs. Memorizing of selected passages. Writing from dictation. Storm's Dialogues Français. Translation of 150 pages of the Reader.

2. Intermediate Prose Course.—Devoted chiefly to the rapid reading of easy narrative prose and modern dialogue, with a view to acquiring an enlarged vocabulary and preparatory to the reading of the classics. Souvestre: Un Philosophe sous les Toits. Alfred de Musset: Pierre et Camille. Feuillet: Le Roman d'un Jeune Homme Pauvre. Alfred de Vigny: Le Cachet Rouge. Translation at sight. Prose Composition.

3. 17th Century.—French Classics, verse and prose. Selections from the works of Corneille, Racine, Molière, Lafontaine, Mme. de Sévigné, Pascal, La Bruyère, La Rochefoucauld, Bossuet, Fénelon. Modern texts descriptive of the period. Prose Composition.

4. 18th Century.—Selections from the works of Voltaire, J. J. Rousseau, d'Alembert, Diderot, Mme. de Staël. Modern texts descriptive of the period. Scientific French. Prose Composition.

5. 19th Century.—Verse and Theatre. Selections from the works of Lamartine, Alfred D. Musset, Victor Hugo, Coppée, Augier, Dumas, Sardou, Labiche, Legouv  . Collateral reading. La Lyre Fran  aise. Prose Composition.

6. 19th Century.—Romance and Criticism. Selections from the works of Alfred de Vigny, Alfred de Musset, George Sand, Balsac, M  rim  e, Daudet, H. de Bornier, Guy de Maupassant, Zola, Loti, Sainte-Beuve, Stendhal, Taine, Brunetiere, Tissot. History of French Literature. Prose Composition.

7. Conversational French.—An honor course in Conversational French is given by Dr. Aviragnet to such students as have made sufficient progress in French.

8. French Prose Composition.—In addition to the exercises in French prose composition required in all the courses, Dr. Aviragnet gives annually a special course in French Composition.

C. SPANISH.

DR. AVIRAGNET.

1. Elementary Spanish.—Spanish Grammar, Conversation, and Translation of easy prose. Fall term, Seniors and Juniors.

2 and 3. Spanish Prose.—Translation, Composition, and Conversation. Winter and spring terms, Seniors and Juniors.

X. MATHEMATICS.

WILLIAM CYRUS BARTOL, PH. D., PROFESSOR.

ALBERT BURNS STEWART, A. M., INSTRUCTOR.

Courses, 1, 2, 4, 5, 7, and 14 are required of every candidate for a degree. Courses 8, 12, and 13, and also 18 and 19, are offered in alternate years.

1. Solid Geometry.—The course includes the geometry of solids with plane surfaces, the cone, the cylinder, the sphere, and the spherical triangle. Freshman year, first term, five hours for eight weeks.

2. College Algebra.—The topics are ratio, proportion, variation, progressions, theory, and development of functions, logarithms, differentiation of algebraic functions, indeterminate equations. Freshman year, first and second terms, five hours for ten weeks.

3. Advanced Algebra.—The topics are permutations and combinations, series, theory of equations, and solution of numerical higher equations. Honor. Freshman year, second term.—INSTRUCTOR STEWART.

4. Trigonometry.—The course includes plane trigonometry with applications to problems in mensuration and surveying, and spherical trigonometry with some applications to problems in astronomy. Freshman year, second and third terms, five hours for ten weeks.

5. Analytical Geometry.—The student is taken through the elementary properties of the right line, the circle, and the conic sections. The course is intended to give a clear conception of the methods of Cartesian analysis rather than an extensive knowledge of its results. Freshman year, third term, five hours for nine weeks.

6. Descriptive Geometry.—The course includes principles and problems relating to the cylinder, cone, double curved surfaces of revolution, and solids bounded by plane surfaces. Honor. Freshman year, third term.—INSTRUCTOR STEWART.

7. Linear Perspective.—A course of twelve lectures designed to familiarize the student with the principles of perspective, and to give him an insight into their manifold applications. Sophomore year, first term, one hour.

8. Mechanical Drawing.—The course includes isometric projection, orthographic projection, perspective, and the use of instruments. Honor. Sophomore year, second term.

9. Differential Calculus.—The course includes higher derivatives and functions of several variables, infinite series, maxima and minima. Sophomore year, second term, five hours.

10. Integral Calculus.—The course includes the simpler methods of integration, rectification and quadrature of plane curves, surfaces and solids of revolution, and applications to problems in Physics and Mechanics. Sophomore year, third term, five hours.

11. Advanced Analytical Geometry.—The course covers the geometry of three dimensions, surfaces of revolution and higher plane curves. Junior year, first term, five hours.

12. Determinants. The theory of determinants is developed in the simplest manner possible, but for some of the final chapters some knowledge of analytical geometry and of the calculus is necessary. The theory of equations will be included in the course. Junior year, second term, five hours.

13. Quaternions.—The elementary principles and rotation of the quaternion calculus, with applications to trigonometry, conic sections and some higher plane curves, constitute the course. Junior year, second term, five hours.

14. Descriptive Astronomy.—The aim of the course is to present in concise form a synopsis of astronomical knowledge to date. Lectures. Sophomore year, second term, one hour.

15. General Astronomy.—The subject is taught by text-book, with illustrations in the observatory. The students have free use of the ten-inch equatorial telescope. Junior year, third term, five hours.

16. Practical Astronomy.—Observations are made for time and to determine the errors of the transit instrument. The use of the micrometer is taught, and the value of its screw revolution determined experimentally. Observations are made for azimuth, and for longitude and latitude. Senior year, first term, five hours.

17. Plane Surveying.—A careful study of the necessary instruments is made; methods of making adjustments and reducing errors is taught. Directions are given for retracing old lines, running contours, sketching topography, and the survey of public lands. Sophomore year, first term, five hours.—INSTRUCTOR STEWART.

18. City Surveying.—Town sites are located and plotted; permanent reference points and bench marks established; sewers located and calculated; curb and property lines determined, and gutter stakes set. Junior year, third term, five hours.—INSTRUCTOR STEWART.

19. Civil Engineering.—Instruction is given in the theory of simple and compound curves, wyes, switches, and turn-outs. A corps is organized, which makes a preliminary survey of a cross-country railroad. Topography of this is taken and plotted; elevation of centre line taken; grade determined; degree of curves fixed, and paper location made. Centre line of permanent survey is now located; slopes stakes set; earthwork calculated; specifications drawn up, and estimates made of the line surveyed. Sophomore year, third term, five hours.—INSTRUCTOR STEWART.

XI. CHEMISTRY AND PHYSICS.

WILLIAM GUNDY OWENS, A. M., PROFESSOR.

HARRY COLLINS SIMONS, SC. B., INSTRUCTOR.

1. Lectures are given to the Freshmen during the third term to acquaint the student with the scope and aims of chemical study, and by suitable experiments to explain the value of laboratory work and the methods used.

2. Descriptive Chemistry is taught by text-book and lectures. The object of the course is to give the student a general knowledge of the most common elements—their sources, use, compounds, and behavior towards other elements and compounds, and to drill the student in writing formulæ and solving chemical equations. To accomplish this, each student is expected to spend at least five hours each week in the Laboratory, studying the characteristics and reactions of the elements and their compounds, and performing the more simple experiments outlined in the text and lectures. Notes will be kept by each student, describing the experiments and giving the equations which represent the reactions that take place. The professor will, from time to time, examine the note-books, and make such suggestions as he thinks helpful. First term, Sophomore year.

3. Analytical Chemistry is open to those only who have completed Descriptive Chemistry. In this course, students examine a number of known solid and liquid substances, noting their reaction. They are then given unknown substances, several in one mixture, which they are required to determine. The course is completed when fifty unknown mixtures have been determined and correctly reported. Second term, Sophomore year.

4. Quantitative Analysis comprises those determinations which will be most useful to the general student. It also offers to the specialist an opportunity to become acquainted with the methods of separation and manipulation. It is open to those who have taken General and Analytical Chemistry. Third term, Sophomore year.

5. Organic Chemistry.—The simplest of the Paraffin and Benzene series and their derivatives are studied. The theoretical basis is kept constantly in view, while the preparation of the simplest and most characteristic compounds prevent the work from becoming simply an act of memory.

6. (1) Ultimate Organic Analysis and Analysis of Fertilizers.—Such determinations are made as will best illustrate the methods used and give the student practice in the manipulation of apparatus.

(2) Toxicology and Medical Chemistry consists of the detection of the most common poisons, the symptoms of poisoning, etc., with practice in the detection of impurities in foods and drugs.

7. Water and Urine Analysis.—Water analysis includes the study of potable and mineral waters, with the quantitative determination of their ingredients.

Urine analysis (second-half term) includes the determination of foreign substances and what their presence indicates.

8. Agricultural Chemistry.—In this course the laws which underlie the Science of Agriculture are considered and illustrated. This course gives the preparation required by the laws of Pennsylvania for teachers of township high schools.

9. Gas Analysis includes the determination of the gases in the air, illuminating gas, generator gas, and others.

Courses 6 and 7 are given on alternate years with courses 8 and 9.

10. Advanced Qualitative Analysis. Honor.

11. Chemical Philosophy.—Second term. Honor.

12. Modern Theories of Chemistry.—Meyer. Third term. Honor.

13. History of Chemistry.—Meyer. Honor.

14. Rise and development of Organic Chemistry.—Honor.

15. Stereo-Chemistry.—Honor.

In PHYSICS seven courses are offered, three of which are elective, and four are honor courses.

1. Mechanics, Sound and Heat.—This course consists of lectures, demonstrations, and recitations, appropriately illustrated.

Elective. Junior year, first term, five hours.

2. Mechanics, Sound and Heat.—Experimental course.

Honor. Junior and Senior. Five hours of Laboratory work.

3. Electricity and Light.—Study of text-book, lectures, and experiments.

Elective. Junior year, second term, five hours.

4. Electricity and Light.—Experimental course.

Honor. Junior and Senior. Five hours of Laboratory work.

5. Magnetism and Electricity. An experimental course, open as an elective to those who have taken courses 1 and 2. Experiments are made by the students, and, where practicable, absolute measurements are taken. Recitations and Laboratory work.

Elective, third term.

6. History of Natural Science. Honor.

7. Development of Applied Science in 19th Century. Honor.

THE CHEMICAL AND PHYSICAL SOCIETY holds meetings bi-weekly to discuss questions in Chemistry and Physics.

XII. ORGANIC SCIENCE.

GEORGE G. GROFF, M. D., PH. D., LL. D., PROFESSOR.

NELSON FITHIAN DAVIS, SC. M., ASSISTANT PROFESSOR.

It is the constant aim in this department to teach how to interpret nature. The student is guided in his investigations by lectures and laboratory manuals.

Courses 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 12, 15, 16, 17, 18, are given by Professor Groff.

Courses 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 13, 14, by Assistant Professor Davis.

1. Animal Physiology.—Recitations and lectures. Second term, Sophomore year, five hours.

2. Neurology.—Recitations and lectures. Third term, Sophomore year, five hours. Prerequisite: Course 1.

3. Sanitary Science.—Recitations and lectures. First term, Junior year, five hours.

4. Human Osteology and Comparative Anatomy.—Recitations and dissections. First term, Senior year, five hours. Prerequisite: Courses 1, 8, and 9.

5. Human Anatomy.—Recitations and dissections. Second term, Senior year, five hours. Prerequisite: Courses 1 and 4.

6. Normal Histology.—Recitations and lectures. Second term, Junior year, five hours. Prerequisite: Courses 1 and 8.

7. Embryology.—Recitations and lectures. First term, Junior year, five hours. Prerequisite: Courses 1 and 8.

8. Biology.—Recitations and dissections. Third term, Sophomore year, five hours.

9. Invertebrate Zoölogy.—Recitations and dissections. First term, Junior year, five hours. Prerequisite: Courses 1 and 8.

10. Vertebrate Zoölogy.—Recitations and dissections. Second term, Junior year, five hours. Prerequisite: Courses 1 and 8.

11. Organic Evolution.—Honor course. Second term, Junior year, two hours.

12. Botany, Phænogamic.—Lectures, recitations, and field work. Third term, Sophomore year, five hours.

13. Botany, Cryptogamic.—Recitations with laboratory or field work. Third term, Junior year, five hours.

14. Bacteriology.—Recitations and lectures. Third term, Junior year, five hours. Prerequisite: Course 6.

15. Materia Medica.—Recitations and lectures. Third term, Senior year, five hours.

16. Mineralogy and Geology.—Recitations and lectures. First half term Mineralogy, second half Geology. First term, Junior year, five hours.

17. Dynamic Geology.—Lectures. Third term, Junior year, one hour.

18. Economic Geology.—Recitations and lectures. Second term, Junior year, five hours. Prerequisite: Course 17.

19. Elements of Forestry. Honor.

LIBRARIES AND APPARATUS.

THE LIBRARIES AND READING-ROOM.

Librarian : PROFESSOR WILLIAM E. MARTIN, A. M.

Assistants : CARL W. TIFFANY, SARAH H. AYRES.

The College Library.—The general library contains about twenty-one thousand volumes, besides several thousand pamphlets. The reading-room is connected with the library, and offers facilities for reading, studying, and writing. During term-time both are open forenoon, afternoon, and evening of each day, Sundays and holidays excepted, and both are maintained without extra charge to students. Students in all departments have free access to the shelves and may draw two books at one time and retain them for two weeks, with the privilege of one renewal, if desired.

The library has entirely outgrown its former accommodations, but the completion of the Laboratory building has left vacant the large adjoining room, which is now used as the young ladies' library and study hall. It has recently been supplied with appropriate furniture, by the kindness of several friends of the University.

For greater convenience of instructors and students, collections of special technical books are also kept in the Laboratories of the Physical and the Organic Sciences, and in the Astronomical Observatory.

The library is regarded as a working laboratory for all departments of instruction, students being constantly cited to it in class room work. In this way, while answering the purpose of general culture, it supplements in great measure the monographic treatment of text-book study, and the student is trained under competent guidance to become an investigator. The resulting practical acquaintance with books and bibliography proves a valuable part of liberal education.

By aid of the Card Catalogue, and Poole's Index to Periodicals, all the resources of the library on any given subject are at once available.

Valued contributions in books, periodicals, and money have been made during the year by the following :

Finley Acker, American Baptist Historical Society, American Baptist

Missionary Union, American Union League, Prof. E. Aviragnet, Mus. Doc., The Backus Estate, The Misses Baker, The Baptist Commonwealth, Rev. William Barrows, A. M., Prof. W. C. Bartol, Ph. II. THE MUSEUM.

The College possesses a good collection of illustrative material in Botany, Mineralogy, Geology, Zoölogy, Materia Medica, and Histology. The specimens are distributed under these classifications and those of Archæology as follows:

Botany.....	1,600
Mineralogy	3,000
Geology	2,000
Zoölogy.....	4,500
Archæology.....	525
Histology	1,200
Materia Medica	300
Total	13,125

Additions to the Museum will always be thankfully received, especially of objects which can be used in laboratory work.

Among these may be mentioned : Zoölogical specimens, especially marine and fresh-water forms of life ; insects ; skeletons of vertebrate animals, birds, and mammals ; botanical specimens ; crystalized minerals ; American and especially Pennsylvania rocks.

Contributions for the Museum have been received during the past year from Ernest A. Sterling, Prof. E. E. Johnson, Dr. Duncan S. Johnson, of Johns Hopkins ; Prof. N. F. Davis, Registrar W. C. Gretzinger, W. H. Slifer, Dr. G. G. Groff, and Prof. W. G. Owens.

III. THE ART COLLECTION.

The beginning has been made of a collection of paintings, casts, engravings, and heliotypes, for the illustration of the Fine Arts. The specimens of all kinds now in possession of the College number about five hundred, and furnish very considerable aid in illustrating the principles and the history of painting and sculpture.

A course of lectures is given yearly to all students of the Sophomore class, on the History of Art, and an elective course is offered to the Juniors and Seniors, in the History, Theory, and Criticism of the Fine Arts, as represented in Architecture and Sculpture.

GENERAL COLLEGE ORDERS.

ATTENDANCE.

Only under exceptional circumstances will excuses be granted to leave College during term time. In such cases the examination on the studies gone over by the class, during a student's absence, will be specially searching, and a high degree of attainment will be exacted. One who is absent during the entire term must almost necessarily lose his standing in his class. The work of the term begins on the day of opening, and recitations are expected at the first hour appointed for the meeting of the classes. The work continues uninterruptedly, with the exception of holidays marked in the Calendar, until the last day of the term.

STANDING.

Each instructor records, in numbers ranging from 0 to 10, the character of the recitation of every student reciting to him, and notes also any delinquency in conduct and attendance. The weekly summary of these markings is recorded in permanent books, and constitutes the basis for determining the standing of the student during his connection with the institution. Unexcused absences from recitations are counted as zero in making up the weekly averages. Excused absences have half the effect in lowering a student's standing as unexcused absences, but a student may, at the option of the professor, do supplementary work, to obviate the effect upon his standing, of excused absences. At the close of each term an average of these marks is made out, and a report of the scholarship, attendance, and conduct of each student is transmitted to his parent or guardian by the President. No student is advanced from one class to another whose average in any study is less than 7. Nor is any student recommended to the Board of Trustees for graduation if his average standing during either his Junior or Senior year shall fall below 8.

Conditioned students are not recommended to the Board of Trustees for promotion. Students conditioned on entrance must discharge such conditions within the first year thereafter.

If a student has failed in the studies of a term, he will not be permitted to enter upon the studies of a subsequent term until he has passed in the subjects in which he failed, unless a postponement of examination to a definite time is granted by the Faculty.

A student who has not completed his rhetorical work in any term will not be permitted to enter upon any of the work of the succeeding term until such deficiency is made up.

Appointments in the Graduating Class are made according to the aggregate standing of each member during his entire course. But in assigning these parts the Faculty takes into account the deportment of the student, as well as marks for recitations. The minimum average for an Oration of the First Class is fixed at 9, and for an Oration of the Second Class at 8.

Students who attain an average of 9.4 or more for their entire course are graduated summa cum laude; students who attain an average of 9.2 or more are graduated magna cum laude; those who attain an average of 9 or more are graduated cum laude.

EXAMINATIONS.

The dates of the examinations are given in the Calendar. In case a student fails to be present at the examination of his class, for any justifiable reason, his examination will be held at such time as the Faculty may appoint, but in no case is an examination granted a student in advance of the time appointed for the examination of the class.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

The College duties of each day are opened with religious services in Bucknell Hall, which all the students of the College are required to attend.

Attendance upon public worship in some church in town on Sunday morning is required. Students must attend the religious services held on Thanksgiving Day.

On the day of Prayer for Colleges, religious services are held in the forenoon, when a sermon is preached by the President, or by some one at his request. All the students are required to attend. In the afternoon and evening services are held in Bucknell Hall, attendance upon which is advised, but not required.

GOVERNMENT.

It is assumed that all who enter upon the courses of study in the College do so for the purpose of acquiring an education, not only of the intellect, but also of character. The Laws of the College, enacted by the Board of Trustees, are as few and simple as the proper regulation of a community of young men will permit. These are printed, and a copy is placed in the hands of every student at the beginning of each year. These laws must be observed, not only in their letter, but in their spirit. The atmosphere of the Institution is not that of arbitrary restraint, but of reasonable conformity to reasonable laws. The College does not wish to place its stamp or bestow its honors upon any one who is not willing to deport himself as a gentleman. Each student is distinctly placed upon his manhood, and if he abuses his privileges, after reasonable caution, he must withdraw from the Institution.

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE HOURS.

The President of the University is in his office, in the Main College building, every Tuesday, from 9.30 A. M. to 12 noon, to confer with students who may desire advice or assistance. Students are encouraged to communicate frankly with the President upon any subject in which he may be of help to them.

OFFICE HOURS FOR THE COLLEGE WOMEN.

The Dean of the College women will receive, in her office in the Institute, College women who may desire advice or assistance from her.

VOLUNTARY SOCIETIES.

Euepia ; Theta Alpha.—These are the two Literary Societies of the College for men. They hold meetings for Orations, Essays, and Debates. Each Society has a convenient hall, and, by an arrangement of the Faculty, will always have a nearly equal number of members.

The Zeta Literary Society is composed of young women admitted to any of the courses in the College.

The Young Men's Christian Association is formed of students from College. It receives religious periodicals and corresponds with kindred societies. A hall has been appropriated to the Society, and has been suitably furnished for religious meetings.

The Students' Publishing Association is an organization which has in charge the issuing of the Bucknell Mirror. This periodical appears monthly during the collegiate year. The same Association publishes the Commencement News daily during Commencement week.

Another association of students publishes, weekly, during the school year, the Orange and Blue.

The Athletic Association of the College has been formed to encourage and regulate athletic sports. Considerable liberty is allowed the Association in carrying out its purpose. The Association is not allowed, however, to arrange match games with other similar bodies without having secured the consent of the Faculty.

No student who is deficient in rhetorical or class-room work in any term shall be eligible to the office of Manager or Director in any student organization, or to be a member of any exhibiting organization, or of any contesting athletic team, or of any Publishing or Editing Board during any subsequent term until such deficiency is made up.

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL CULTURE.

GEORGE W. HOSKINS, DIRECTOR.

The Tustin Gymnasium has been provided for the physical training and development of young men. Young women have opportunity for physical training in the Gymnasium of the Institute. These are now provided with the apparatus usually found in well-furnished gymnasiums. The Directors of the Gymnasium examine every student, taking and recording in a book his physical measurements, and prescribe such exercise as may be required for his physical development. Regular exercise in the Gymnasium is required of all students during the winter term.

AIDS AND HONORS.

PRIZES.

The prizes are awarded to the persons who in the judgment of the several committees attain the highest degree of excellence among the respective competitors, but no prize is bestowed unless a high degree of merit has been attained by the person receiving it.

THE PRIZE OF THE CLASS OF '71.

This prize, established by the Class of 1871, is awarded to the student of the Freshman Class who shall prove himself best prepared for College in the two branches, Latin and Mathematics, and who shall have received his preparatory training in Bucknell Academy.

The prize for 1900 was awarded to Reese Harvey Harris.

THE HOLLOPETER PRIZE.

William C. Hollopeter, M. D., Class of 1874, has established an annual prize for excellence in Chemistry, to be awarded to that student at graduation who shall have done the best work in Chemistry, regard being had both to the amount and quality of the work.

The prize was awarded in 1900 to Isaac Ray Vincent.

THE HERBERT TUSTIN PRIZES.

In memory of his deceased son, the late Professor F. W. Tustin, Ph. D., of the Class of 1856, paid to the Trustees of the University the sum of five hundred dollars, "as the foundation of the HERBERT TUSTIN PRIZE FUND, the interest of which is to be forever paid annually as two prizes, in the proportion of fifteen dollars for the First Prize, and of ten dollars for the Second Prize, to the two students of the Senior Class who shall have attained the highest and the second highest standing in Psychology and Ethics (under such regulations for the pursuit of these studies as the Faculty of the College shall prescribe from time to time), and whose conduct for the last two years of their course in College shall have been without exception."

The first prize was awarded in 1900 to Thomas Johnson Morris, and the second to Irving Amon DeWitt,

THE HERBERT GOODMAN BARROWS PRIZES.

In memory of his son, the Rev. William Barrows, A. M., of the Class of 1867, paid to the Trustees of the University the sum of five hundred dollars, "as the foundation of the HERBERT GOODMAN BARROWS PRIZE FUND, the interest of which is to be forever paid annually as two prizes of equal amounts to the student or two students of the Senior Class who shall have attained the highest standing, respectively, in the Latin and in the Greek language and literature (under such regulations for the pursuit of these studies as the Faculty of the College shall prescribe from time to time), and whose conduct for the last two years of their course in College shall have been without exception."

These prizes will be awarded for the first time at the annual Commencement, 1901.

THE CHAPLAIN J. J. KANE PRIZE.

The Rev. James J. Kane, A. M., Chaplain in the United States Navy, and a graduate from the Theological Department of this University, of the Class of 1867, has established a prize which is to be given annually to that member of the graduating class who delivers the best oration on Commencement Day.

The prize was awarded in 1900 to Charles Ernest Bunnell.

THE CHARLES MILLER FELLOWSHIP.

A fellowship in Chicago University, open only to graduates of Bucknell University, has been founded by Gen. Charles Miller, A. M., of Franklin, Pa.

The Bucknell University Fellow for 1900 is Llewellyn Phillips, A. M., Class of 1892.

SCHOLARSHIPS.I. THE BUCKNELL SCHOLARSHIPS.

The William Bucknell Scholarships, twenty in number and of $1,000 each, were established for the purpose of aiding worthy young men in securing an education which will increase their usefulness in life. The income of these scholarships is to be paid annually to twenty young men, in accordance with the rules which will be made known upon application to the Committee of Examination, consisting of the President of the University, H. S. Hopper, Esq., and Professor Rockwood.

II. SCHOLARSHIPS FOR MINISTERS' CHILDREN.

Scholarships upon the general foundation have been established for the children of ministers of the Gospel, of all denominations, in active service.

III. THE LIVINGSTON SCHOLARSHIPS.

Established from a legacy of M. B. Livingston, twenty-two in number, are available for students for the Ministry.

IV. THE LONGAN SCHOLARSHIP.

The Longan Scholarship, established from a legacy of O. W. Longan, Esq., is available for a student for the Ministry from Lycoming Co., Pa.

V. THE EBEN C. JAYNE SCHOLARSHIPS.

Two scholarships have been established by Eben C. Jayne, Esq., of Philadelphia, for the benefit of young women in the College, the award to depend upon the standing and character of the students receiving them. The Eben C. Jayne scholars for 1899-1900 were Emelie Louise Pooley and Edna Schuyler Shires.

VI. THE GEORGE ALEXANDER BAILEY SCHOLARSHIP.

A scholarship in memory of George Alexander Bailey, M. D., has been established by his brother, Orville E. B. Bailey, M. D.

VII. ANNUAL SCHOLARSHIPS.

A number of persons have established annual scholarships for the aid of young men or women attending college. Information concerning ministerial and annual scholarships can be obtained from the President of the University.

HONOR STUDIES.

In order to promote special scholarship in the several departments of study the following provision has been made:

1. Any student who has obtained an average of 9 in the studies of the previous term may take special work in any department of the College, under the direction of the Professor of that department.

2. Such work must be assigned by the Professor, and the method of study prescribed by him.

3. If the students shall attain an aggregate average of 9 in all the studies of the current term, and pass a satisfactory examination in the voluntary study, the work shall be credited to him in the Annual Catalogue of the College.

4. Only one such study shall be pursued by any one student during any one term. A student may also take two honor studies in the Summer vacation.

5. The Professor with whom the student is working shall have the privilege of requiring a partial examination on the work done at any time during the term, and there may be regular recitations at the Professor's option.

6. The amount and quality of this extra work shall be taken into account in awarding honors at graduation.

The following Honor Examinations have been sustained during the year ending June 20, 1900 :

EXPENSES.

The College charges amount to $90 per annum, for those who room in the College building, and $75 for those who room in the town. Tuition is rated at $50 per annum. Graduation fee and diploma, $10. Degree of Master of Arts and Diploma, $10.

The Study Rooms in the Main College are so arranged that two students occupy the same study. The Dormitories are intended to accommodate only one person, so that each student has his own private sleeping-room. These are furnished with new spring bedsteads. The student must supply himself with all other furniture. Students are responsible for damage to their rooms, whether it be done when they are present in the room or absent from it.

If a student occupy a study by himself, the charges for room-rent and private fuel will be doubled.

An extra charge ranging from $5 to $10 per term is charged for rooms in the West College.

An additional charge is made for rooms cared for by the Institution.

Young men in the Collegiate Department, who so desire, can have furnished rooms in the West College, with board in the Academy; young women in the same department room and board in the Institute. For rates apply to the Registrar.

The assignments of rooms are for one year, and are made the first Monday morning in June, immediately after the devotional exercises in Bucknell Hall. Students from a distance will save inconvenience by applying to the Registrar for a room before the term opens.

In the Laboratories students pay for chemicals used and for apparatus broken or damaged. In the Chemical Laboratory this will amount to about $10 for Analytical and $3 for General Chemistry, depending upon the care of the student.

A small fee is charged also in each of the elective courses in the department of Organic Science, and in Surveying and Engineering, for the use of instruments and for material used.

Before entering upon the experimental courses students must deposit with the Registrar security for materials used.

These charges must be paid in advance at the beginning of each term.

No student is entitled to his place in his class until he has made settlement with the Registrar.

Students can board in clubs at a cost of from $2.00 to $2.50 per week. Excellent boarding can be obtained in private families at $3.00 or $4.00 per week, or at the table of the Bucknell Academy at $3.00 per week. Washing is done at 25 cents per week. No boarding is allowed in the College buildings.

COURSES OF STUDY.

The Academy is designed to fit pupils for College, for Teaching, or for Business. It offers three Courses of Study.

I. The Classical Course extends through four years and is arranged to meet the requirements for admission to College. The study of Latin begins with the First Form and continues for three and a half years. The study of Greek begins with the Third Form and continues for two years. Notwithstanding the time given to these branches of study, fully one-half of the time of the entire course is devoted to English, Historical, Mathematical, and Scientific subjects.

II. The Latin Scientific Course extends through four years and furnishes adequate preparation for either division of the Philosophical Course in College. The First and Second Forms of the Classical and the Scientific Courses are identical. In the Third and Fourth Forms, the student preparing for the Latin Division substitutes Historical and Scientific subjects for the Greek of the Classical Course; while the student preparing for the Greek Division substitutes the Greek of the Third and Fourth Forms for the Latin and includes Historical and Scientific subjects.

III. The Scientific Course extends through four years and prepares for the corresponding course in College. For the Vergil and the Cicero of the Latin Scientific Course, it substitutes one term of Advanced English, one term of Chemistry, and one year of German.

Students who are able to accomplish more work in the allotted time than is required by the Classical Course, are encouraged to add the special studies of the Scientific Course. They may also pursue extra honor work in the Classics by reading, under an instructor's direction, Cæsar's Civil War, Cicero's Letters, or Sallust, and Books IV, V, VI, of the Iliad, or the Cyropædia.

Students will be admitted to the Form for which they are prepared.

Students who do not intend to enter College but who desire a comprehensive academic training, will find the Scientific, or the Latin Scientific Course, well adapted to prepare them for teaching or for business.

Transient students may elect from the studies offered in any term such branches as they are qualified to pursue.

TEXT-BOOKS.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE:—Reed's Word Lessons; Kellogg and Reed's Word Building; Sheldon's Advanced Lessons in English; Reed and Kellogg's Higher Lessons; Butler's Composition; D. J. Hill's Elements of Rhetoric; Pancoast's Representative English Literature; English and American Classics, various editions.

MATHEMATICS:—The American Comprehensive Arithmetic; Higher Arithmetic; Beman and Smith's Elements of Algebra; Wentworth's Geometry; Bryant's High School Bookkeeping.

HISTORY AND GOVERNMENT:—McLaughlin's United States; Myers' General; Montgomery's English; Myers' Greece; Myers' Rome; Macy's Civil Government.

GREEK:—White's First Greek Book; Goodwin's Greek Grammar; Goodwin's Anabasis; Seymour's Iliad.

LATIN:—Collar and Daniell's First Latin Book; Collar's Gate to Cæsar; Bennett's Grammar; Bennett's Latin Prose; Allen and Greenough's New Cæsar; Greenough and Kittredge's Vergil; Allen and Greenough's New Cicero.

SCIENCE:—Davis's Physical Geography; Carhart & Chute's Physics; Young's Lesson's in Astronomy; Martin's Briefer Course in Physiology; Le Conte's Elements of Geology; Chemistry.

METHODS OF INSTRUCTION.

The Preparatory Curriculum naturally falls into seven principal lines of study, viz.: English, German, Latin, Greek, History, Mathematics, and Natural Science. These combine, in due proportion, the cultural, the disciplinary, and the practical elements of intermediate education. The two great divisions of modern study, the Classical and the Scientific, are accorded adequate and appropriate preparation. The subjects, facilities, and methods of the various departments are explained below.

I. THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE.

A thorough grounding in the principles of English Grammar is indispensable to the student's progress in the subsequent language studies. The continuous application of this knowledge in Composition, and the constant comparison with the forms and idioms of the Ancient Languages, prepare the way for the study of elementary Rhetoric, and the appreciative reading of English and American Literature.

II. THE LATIN LANGUAGE.

Careful drill is given in the declensions and conjugations, in the use of the moods and the sequence of tenses, in the ready reading of the Latin text, in sight reading and in accurate translation into idiomatic English. Attention is given to the important personal, historical, and political elements in the writings of Caesar and Cicero. In Vergil, the student is introduced to the poetry, legend, religion, and art of Rome. He is taught to investigate the allegorical, archæological, and mythical allusions of the Æneid, and to appreciate it as the mirror of the life of the Empire. Latin prosody is taught first from the text, and then from the grammar.

III. THE GREEK LANGUAGE.

The first two terms of the Third Form are spent in a thorough study of White's First Greek Book. In the third term Xenophon's Anabasis is read, and special attention is given to acquiring a vocabulary and to the forms and syntax of nouns, pronouns, and adjectives. In the first half of the Fourth Form the reading of Xenophon is continued. During the last half year Homer's Iliad is read, and the difference between Homeric and Attic forms is noted. Throughout the course Prose Composition is frequently given for the purpose of acquiring a vocabulary and a knowledge of syntax.

IV. THE GERMAN LANGUAGE.

One year's study of German is required of members of the Fourth Form of the Scientific Course. The same work may be elected by the members of the corresponding form of the Latin Scientific Course instead of the science subjects of that course. In the study of German the aim is a thorough acquaintance with the forms of words, declensions, and conjugations; facility of pronunciation; quick recognition of words both by the eye and the ear; as extensive a vocabulary as the time will allow; and by constant practice to lay the foundation for reading, writing and speaking the language.

V. HISTORY.

The course in History includes a survey of the History of the United States, of England, of Greece, and of Rome. The aim is to acquaint the student with the life, the genius, the institutions, and the achievements of the respective peoples, and their part in the wider history of mankind.

Civil Government is taught as a preparation for intelligent citizenship. The origin and growth of our institutions, the functions of the various departments of the National, State, and local governments, the political history of the people, the interpretation and construction of the Constitution, are presented and discussed.

VI. MATHEMATICS.

Arithmetic.—To students who are fitting themselves for business, a course is given in practical business Arithmetic, involving all the ordinary problems and practices in the business world. To those who are preparing for college or for teaching, instruction is given in the theory and science of Arithmetic. Pupils are expected to master the principles and then to formulate their own rules.

Algebra.—The course extends through one year, and includes a knowledge of the fundamental principles, Factoring, Divisors and Multiples, Fractions, Equations, Involution, Evolution, Theory of Exponents, Radicals and Quadratic Equations. Daily Blackboard work serves to apply the principles taught. The student is required both to know the methods of the solution of problems and also to explain the operation to the class.

Plane Geometry.—The instruction consists in daily recitations for two terms on the Theorems and Problems given in the text-book, with original demonstrations of the same propositions by the students from hints and figures given in the class-room. Besides this, considerable attention is given to the solution of original Propositions, and the application of principles thus learned to the solution of numerical problems.

Book-keeping.—A practical introduction to the science of accounts is secured in the term devoted to mastering the principles of Double Entry Book-keeping. Careful attention is given to business forms, to the usages of Banks, and to the elements of Commercial Law. The subject may be pursued in its more extended and intricate applications by a second term's work, open to properly qualified students.

VII. SCIENCE.

Physical Geography lays a foundation for subsequent work in all sciences. It surveys the earth's physiography, climate, atmosphere, fauna, flora, ocean tides and currents, and geological agencies. Special attention is given to the physical features of the United States. The subject is illustrated by drawings, photographs, colored and relief maps, and specimens from the Museum.

Botany is taught by text-book, field exercise, plant analysis, and weekly lectures. A brief outline is first obtained of plant structure, physiology, growth, and reproduction. The subject is then reviewed by daily drill in analyzing, recording, classifying, and preserving specimens. The recorded analysis of fifty plants is required. Lectures explaining special forms of vegetable growth, the flora of this country, the cultivation, uses, and history of plants complete the work.

Physiology.—Every effort is made to impart clear ideas of the structure, parts, and functions of the human body. Special attention is given to the chemistry of foods, the laws of health, the effects of stimulants and narcotics. Suggestions are constantly made as to poisons and their antidotes, the care of the sick, disinfection and sanitation, and accidents and emergencies. Charts, manikin, and preparations are used in class.

Physics.—The student is grounded in the elements of mechanics and physics. The apparatus of the College Laboratory is available for use. The historical beginnings of each subject, and subsequent development, are sketched in brief lectures. No pains are spared to familiarize the pupil with the laws of these sciences, by instruction, experiments, review, and repeated examination. The truth of principles is proved, except where the demonstration involves the mathematics of the higher course in College.

Astronomy.—Descriptive Astronomy discusses the earth's relations to the solar system, the masses, motions, and orbits of each member of it; the causes and consequences of at least five motions of the earth; general boundaries of the constellations of the Zodiac and northern heavens; the theories of comets, meteors, and nebulae. Charts, star maps, globes, and other apparatus are used, and the student is afforded privileges of observation in the College Observatory.

Geology.—The student masters the elements of lithological, structural, dynamic, and historical Geology. Specimens of various rocks and minerals are handled in class; their composition, characteristics, and place in nature are explained; the structure of the earth in its present form is studied; the history of its evolution, the age and characteristics of its strata, the chief geological features of each continent, and the forces at work, and that have worked to produce changes, are considered.

VIII. ORATORY.

Class Exercises.—Members of the Fourth Form prepare and deliver two original orations each term. All other students have regular exercises in Composition and Declamation throughout the year. Public exercises are held on Saturday morning, before the faculty and students of the Academy. Visitors are cordially welcomed to these exercises.

In addition to the private rehearsals for the work above indicated, all students receive weekly instruction in Elocution. The course includes careful drill in the Elementary sounds, in Articulation, and in Expression; in Analytical Reading, including the Bible and Hymns; and the reading of Shakspeare.

IX. SPECIAL BRANCHES.

Bible Study.—The study of the Bible is pursued as a regular weekly recitation throughout the Second, Third, and Fourth Forms, in all courses of study. A scheme of study is arranged at the beginning of each year. It is intended that the successive schemes for the various years of the course will cover the Life of Christ, the Historical portions of the Old Testament foreshadowing the Christ, and the History of the Apostolic Church.

Literature Study.—The reading and study of the masterpieces of English and American Literature is maintained in the Second, Third, and Fourth Forms by means of weekly recitations and conferences. The work required is identical with the "Scheme of Uniform Entrance Examinations in English Language and Literature," adopted by the "Association of Colleges and Preparatory Schools of the Middle States and Maryland." It comprises (a) careful readings of representative works of certain authors, as literature; (b) thorough study as to "subject-matter, form, and structure" of other selections. Regular examinations will determine the student's proficiency.

The Study of Music may be pursued by Academic students under the instructions of Professor E. Aviragnet and his assistants, of the School of Music.

Drawing.—All students of the Academy may receive throughout the year weekly lessons in Free-hand and Drawing and Penmanship without extra charge. Special individual instruction in Drawing is afforded at twenty-four dollars per annum.

X. HEALTH AND PHYSICAL CULTURE.

The Tustin Gymnasium affords opportunity for physical exercise. The Directors of the Gymnasium give regular class exercises to the students of the Academy. Attendance upon physical training in the Gymnasium is obligatory during the Winter Term.

The Athletic Association of the Academy has been formed to encourage and regulate athletic sports. The Association is allowed to arrange match games with other similar bodies by first securing the consent of the Principal.

PUBLIC EXHIBITIONS.

THIRD FORM.

The Public Exhibition in Declamation by the Third Form will take place on Saturday evening, April 20th, 1901, in Bucknell Hall.

FOURTH FORM.

The closing exercises of the Academy will be the Public Exhibition in Oratory of the Fourth Form, on Tuesday morning, June 18th, 1901.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

ADVANTAGES.

To the student seeking preparation for College, the Academy offers unusual inducements. Its proximity to the College secures to him an atmosphere of study, acquaintance with the guides and companions of his future course, and the benefit of numerous literary exercises to be found only in College towns. He has access to the College Library and Reading Room. The Academy is designed to fit its pupils thoroughly for College and Technical Schools, and to lay broad and solid foundations for all subsequent scholarly culture and for the successful conduct of every-day affairs.

GOVERNMENT.

Students are encouraged to regard self-government as the only true government. It will be the constant endeavor to secure uprightness of character, gentlemanly deportment, and diligent application to work, by kind treatment, and high standards in conduct and study.

I. ADMINISTRATION.

1. The general control of the Academy is vested in the President of the University.

2. The government of the Academy, subject to such control, rests with the Principal of the Academy.

3. The government of each Hall is vested in the Instructor in charge, who resides in the Hall and enforces regulations for the Hours of Study, Academy Property, Hygienic Precautions, and General Deportment, and such other prudential regulations as may be ordered by the joint concurrence of the President of the University and the Principal of the Academy.

4. Each instructor shall have charge of his classes with reference to attendance upon recitations. He shall report to the Principal cases of non-attendance, and inexcusable failure on the part of students to prepare regular lessons or special work assigned.

II. VIOLATION OF RULES.

1. Any officer of the Institution becoming cognizant of any violation of regulations by any pupil shall report the same to the Principal of the Academy, who shall make a record of the fact in a book provided for the purpose.

2. Every violation of the laws and prudential regulations of the Academy will subject the offender to a penalty of demerits, graded according to the flagrancy and frequency of the offense.

3. When the sum of a pupil's demerits equals ten it shall be the Principal's duty to notify the parent or guardian of the offender, specifying the offense; for every additional five demerits like notification shall be made.

4. Additional disciplinary penalties in the form of reprimand, "campus," suspension, dismissal, or expulsion, according to the necessities of the case, will follow repeated violations.

BUILDINGS AND ROOMS.

The Academy Buildings are described in detail in the introductory pages of this Catalogue.

The Main Building contains, besides its accommodations for other school and boarding purposes, rooms for students. The rooms are designed to accommodate two students each, and are twenty feet by twelve feet, and fourteen feet high. They are subdivided into a study room twelve feet by ten feet, and a sleeping room nine feet square.

The New East Hall contains combined study and sleeping rooms, each designed for two students. These rooms are fifteen feet by twelve feet, with high ceilings and contain two commodious closets and two single wire mattress beds with all necessary furniture.

UNFURNISHED ROOMS.

The Academy has a number of unfurnished rooms for the accommodation of students of mature years and of limited means. No attention by servants is given to these rooms, nor are lights supplied. Two students occupy a study room in common. The sleeping rooms are provided with single bedsteads with wire mattress. All other furnishing is to be done by the occupants. While second-hand articles of furniture may be obtained here, it will be to the student's advantage to bring from home bedding and carpets. The dimensions of the study rooms are ten feet by twelve feet; of the sleeping rooms, nine feet by nine feet.

ARTICLES REQUIRED.

Each student should be provided with an umbrella, overshoes, table napkins, towels, soap, and other articles usually required for personal comfort. All articles for the laundry should be marked with the owner's name.

BOARDING.

All students from a distance will occupy rooms and will board in the Academy, except for reasons jointly satisfactory to the President of the University and the Principal of the Academy.

The Principal and his family, the Instructors, and the Matron live in the building, take their meals with the boarders, and strive in all possible ways to secure the welfare and happiness of the students. The Instructors occupy rooms adjacent to the students' apartments. The appointments of the Dining Room, the character of the table supplies, the household service in general are designed to furnish the comforts of a first-class boarding-house. So far as may be warranted by the deportment of the students, there will be absent from the home-life of the school all needless uniformity in irksome limitations, which disregard the reasonable individual preference of pupils.

The Academy gives to furnished rooms daily and complete attention, provides and washes all bedding and bed clothing, and supplies and cares for all lights.

Engagements for board and rooms are expected to continue without change to the end of the school year for which they are made.

APPLIANCES.

The Academy is in possession of excellent apparatus for instruction. A select Reference Library, containing Encyclopedias, Lexicons, Dictionaries, Atlases, and various other helps, is accessible to students at all hours. The Classical Recitation Rooms are provided with Kiepert's Wall Maps of Ancient Geography, and with Reinhard's Album of Ancient Antiquities, mounted. Metric apparatus, Maps and Globes render assistance in other directions.

The apparatus of the College also is accessible to the classes for purposes of experiment and illustration.

The College Library, numbering 21,000 volumes, is available for all students.

SCHOOL-ROOM.

In order to insure favorable conditions of study, the Academy maintains a commodious, and well appointed school-room. The school life centers in this room. Here, except when engaged in recitation, day students prepare their work, unless excused for a part of the time, for good cause; here also all the younger students of the lower forms prepare for their recitations. Advanced students and those of maturer years, who have acquired habits of independent study, are granted the privilege of preparing part of their work in their rooms, provided that they maintain high scholarship and excellent deportment.

HOURS.

The time devoted to study and recitation amounts to nine hours every week-day, except Saturday, when it is only two hours. This time should be sacred to its purpose. Parents of day pupils are requested to co-operate with the school in securing attention to evening study hours, and to avoid furnishing occasions or granting excuses for absence.

Students from a distance should be in Lewisburg on the day preceding the opening of each term, and no student should leave until the term has closed. Punctuality in attendance is essential to success in school work.

For terms and vacations, see the Calendar of the University.

STANDING AND PROMOTIONS.

The weekly average of marks for recitations are recorded, and also failures in conduct and attendance. The scale for such markings ranges from 10, or perfect, to 0, or inexcusable failure. Unexcused absences count as zero.

Monthly and term examinations are held in the studies thus far completed and term reports of the average in scholarship, attendance, and conduct of each student are sent to parents or guardians by the Principal.

No student is promoted to the next higher class whose grade in any study is less than 7.

Students who complete the Preparatory Courses of Study are admitted to standing in corresponding divisions of the Freshman Class in the College, upon the Principal's certificate, without examination.

All students who complete in a satisfactory manner any of the Courses of Study, and who have sustained irreproachable character during their school residence, shall be entitled to the diploma of the Academy.

Students attaining an average standing of 9 are encouraged to take work additional to the Regular Courses of Study.

PRIZES.

THE HARRY S. HOPPER PRIZE.

Mr. Harry S. Hopper, of Philadelphia, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, offers an annual prize for excellence in Composition.

This prize for 1900 was awarded to Frank Ellsworth Ammon.

THE REV. DAVID PORTER LEAS PRIZE.

Rev. David P. Leas, of Philadelphia, Treasurer of Bucknell University, offers an annual prize to that member of the Third Form who shall excel in the Annual Exhibition of Third Form in Declamation.

THE WILLIAM E. MARTIN PRIZE.

Principal Edwards offers an annual prize, named in honor of Professor William E. Martin, to that member of the Fourth Form who shall pronounce the best oration at the Academic Graduating Exhibition.

This prize for 1900 was awarded to William Miles Kieffer.

LITERARY SOCIETY.

This is a voluntary organization of students for mutual improvement in literary and oratorical exercises. It has a large and convenient hall in the Main Academy Building, where meetings are held on Friday evenings.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

The duties of each day are opened with devotional exercises, which all students are required to attend. Devotional exercises are also held every evening, just before the evening study hour. All Academic students residing on the University campus are required to attend these exercises.

Regular attendance at Sunday-school, and upon public worship at some church on Sunday morning, is required; also upon services on Thanksgiving Day, and the Day of Prayer for Colleges. Attendance upon Christian Endeavor or other like Young People's Society, and the mid-week prayer-meetings, while voluntary, is strongly urged upon students.

Parents or guardians are requested to indicate to the Principal the church which they desire their sons or wards to attend.

The Academic students maintain a branch of the Young Men's Christian Association, which holds a weekly prayer-meeting on Tuesday evenings.

COURSES OF STUDY.

The Bucknell Institute offers to young women three courses of study, each extending over five years. Students are admitted to advanced standing, if, upon examination, they are found to have satisfactory knowledge of the branches which the class they propose to enter has already completed.

Credentials from Graded Schools are accepted in the studies of the First and Second Years.

Credentials are accepted for the Third and Fourth Years from schools whose curricula are equivalent to that of Bucknell Institute; also from accredited private teachers, in studies which are continued after entrance.

I. THE LITERARY COURSE.

The Literary Course embraces, in MATHEMATICS, Arithmetic, common and advanced, Algebra and Geometry, plane and solid, and Higher Algebra with Trigonometry and Analytical Geometry as electives; in LATIN, two years required, and a third year elective with German or French; in GERMAN and FRENCH, one year each or two of either; and in ITALIAN and SPANISH, an optional course; in SCIENCE, Physical Geography, Botany, Astronomy, Physics, Physiology, Chemistry, and Geology. In these branches the students have the advantages afforded by the College Observatory, Laboratory, and Museum. The course also includes Rhetoric, Composition, Civil Government, Psychology, Ethics, and History of Art.

Special attention is given to History and Literature, to the former of which six and to the latter of which three terms are devoted.

II. THE CLASSICAL COURSE.

The Classical Course embraces in MATHEMATICS, Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, plane and solid, University Algebra, Trigonometry, and Analytical Geometry; in LATIN, Grammar and Composition, Cæsar, Vergil, Cicero's Orations, Cicero de Senectute et de Amicitia, Livy, and Paternulus, in all, four years; in GREEK, Grammar and Composition, Xenophon's Anabasis, Homer's Iliad, Lysias' Orations, Plato's Apology, Homer's Odyssey, and the Greek Testament, in all, three years ; in HISTORY, General History, and Greek and Roman History.

Students who complete the Classical Course are admitted to the Sophomore Class in College as candidates for the first degree in Arts.

III. THE LATIN SCIENTIFIC COURSE.

The Latin Scientific Course corresponds to the Classical course, except that scientific subjects are substituted for the first two years of Greek, and German for the third year of Greek.

Students who complete the Latin Scientific Course are admitted to the Sophomore Class in College as candidates for the first degree in Philosophy.

SELECT STUDIES.

Students who do not wish to pursue a course of study may elect such subjects in connection with the recitations of the regular classes as they may be qualified to pursue.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION.

The required age for admission to the first-year class or to pursue select studies is twelve years, and a proportionate increase of age for admission to advanced classes.

TEXT-BOOKS.

The following text-books are used: McCosh's Cognitive Powers, Robinson's Ethics, D. J. Hill's Rhetoric, Pancoast's English Literature, Good-year's History of Art, Collar and Daniell's Latin Exercises, Allen and Greenough's Cæsar, Allen and Greenough's Cicero, Allen and Greenough's Vergil, Rockwood's Cicero de Senectute, Lord's Livy, Platner's Pliny, Rockwood's Velleius Paterculus, White's First Greek Book, Goodwin's Anabasis, Seymour's Iliad, Perrin's Odyssey, Morgan's Lysias, Scribner's Greek Testament, Keller's First Year in German, Buchheim's Deutsche Lyrik, Hatfield's Composition, Keller's Bilder aus der deutschen Literatur, Schiller's Der Taucher, Goethe's Götz von Berlichingen, Goethe's Hermann and Dorothea, Wentworth's Grammar School Arithmetic, Wentworth's Higher Arithmetic, Beman and Smith's Algebra, Wells' College Algebra, Wentworth's Geometry, Bartol's Solid Geometry, Wentworth's Trigonometry, Nichol's Analytical Geometry, Sharpless and Philips' Natural Philosophy, Young's Astronomy, Coulter's Botany, Walker's Physiology, Arey's Chemistry, Barnes' General History, Fiske's History of the United States, Guest's History of England, Myers' History of Greece and of Rome, Macy's Civil Government.

METHODS OF INSTRUCTION.

I. PSYCHOLOGY AND ETHICS.

Psychology is taught by text-book and informal lectures. The relations of Psychology to education is made a special feature of the course.

The aim in the Course in Ethics is to make the instruction as practical as possible. Robinson's work on Ethics is used as a text book.

II. LITERATURE AND ART.

LITERATURE is taught by topical outlines, the elaboration of which depends upon a sympathetic study of the masterpieces in connection with the lives and times of the writers. The subject is so presented that a vital experience results rather than an empty form of knowledge. The object of the course is to cultivate and ennoble the emotions, to stimulate the imagination, and to reinforce the will with strong and exalted motives.

THE HISTORY OF ART is a required study in the Senior year, Literary Course. The aim of the course is to give a general knowledge of the development of art and to lead to an acquaintance with individual artists and their work. Some attention is given to the theories concerning the origin of the art-impulse itself, and the law of the mental evolution which has governed the history of art.

III. HISTORY.

History.—Six terms are devoted to this study. The course embraces General History, the History of the United States, of England, of Greece, and of Rome. Efforts are made to convince the learner that History is not mere facts in chronological order, but a record of the development of civilization.

Civil Government is taught as a preparation for intelligent citizenship. The origin and growth of our institutions, the functions of the various departments of the National, State, and local governments; the political history of the people; the interpretation and construction of the Constitution, are discussed.

IV. THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE.

English Grammar.—The aim is to enable the pupils to speak and write the English language with accuracy and force.

Rhetoric is taught as a practical aid to English Composition. Daily exercises in Composition are required.

English Composition is required throughout the course. Classes in Composition meet weekly for general criticism and the assignment of work. One essay is required from each student monthly, and an exercise in rapid and concise writing is assigned weekly.

V. THE LATIN LANGUAGE.

Paradigms of Declension and Conjugation, with the Principles of Syntax, are introduced gradually, after many illustrations. English sentences are translated into Latin, readiness in Latin Composition and a correct style being thus acquired.

The following courses are offered: 1. Latin Grammar and Lessons, one term; 2. Eutropius, one term; 3. Cæsar: Gallic War, two terms; 4. Vergil: Æneid, three terms; 5. Cicero: Orations, two terms; 6. Cicero De Senectute and Livy, one term; 7. Livy: Books XXI and XXII, one term; 8. Paternulus and Pliny, one term.

VI. THE GREEK LANGUAGE.

The first half of the Third Year is spent in acquiring sufficient knowledge of forms and inflections to commence the study of Xenophon's Anabasis. During the last half year, special attention is given to the inflection and syntax of nouns, pronouns, and adjectives. The reading of Xenophon is continued in the first term of the Fourth Year, and the forms and syntax of verbs made a special study. Homer is then read for one term and a half, and the difference between Homeric and Attic forms is noted. During the last half term Xenophon is reviewed, that the student may refresh her knowledge of Attic Greek, and may not find her transition to College needlessly difficult. Almost daily drill is given in turning into Greek sentences based on the text of Xenophon.

The following courses in Greek are offered to students in the Classical Courses: 1. Greek Lessons, two terms; 2. Xenophon: Anabasis, two terms; 3. Homer: Iliad, two terms; 4. Lysias: Orations, one term; 5. Homer: Odyssey, one term; 6. Plato: Apology, one term; 7. Greek New Testament.

VII. MODERN LANGUAGES.

1. French, Italian, and Spanish.—The modern languages are taught by comparing them with the mother tongue of the pupil, if there be any relation between them. If there is none, they are compared with the Latin and Greek languages. In French, rules are taught by which the words that are not exactly the same in the two languages are easily made into French.

French syntax is taught by examples and illustrations from readings. The grammar is taught from the language, and not the language from the grammar. Dictation exercises are given from Whitney's Practical French.

As far as practicable French only is spoken in the class-room. Extracts are read from the best French literature. Conversations are held in French on the readings, stories are related, and compositions prepared in French by the pupil.

The aim is to teach the modern languages so that they can be spoken correctly.

The same method is used in teaching Spanish and Italian.

2. German.—In the study of German the aim is to get a knowledge of the language in an all-round way. This is accomplished not alone through the study of grammar and the translation of German into English, but by daily practice in conversation, the committing to memory of poems and idioms, and through an acquaintance with biography and the different phases of German life. As little English as practicable is used in the class-room. Throughout the course there is constant sight-reading, translation at hearing, and translation from English into German.

The reading of the second year includes the best German authors studied in connection with Keller's History of German Literature.

VIII. MATHEMATICS.

Arithmetic.—Two objects are considered in teaching the subject: first, to give the student a practical knowledge of all ordinary business problems and calculations; second, to develop her ability to think logically and rapidly. The memorizing of rules and mechanical processes is not required, but independent thought, logical analysis and neatness, clearness and accuracy in all written work are demanded. A drill in Mental Arithmetic is combined with the required work of the text-book.

Elements of Algebra.—Three terms are given to this subject. There is thorough drill in the fundamental operations, and the idea that these are simply the applications of arithmetical processes to symbols of general value is kept constantly in mind. The course includes Quadratic Equations, Theory of Exponents, Variation, and Series.

Geometry.—The course includes Plane and Solid Geometry. Besides the demonstrations of Theorems given in the text-book, original demonstrations and the solution of problems are required.

Higher Algebra.—The topics discussed are: Progressions, Theory of Limits, Differentiation, Development of Functions into Series, Convergency and Summation of Series, Logarithms, Compound Interest and Annuities, Permutations and Combinations, Probability, Continued Fractions, and the Theory of Equations.

Trigonometry.—The course includes Plane and Spherical Trigonometry. Time is given to the numerical illustration of principles, for the purpose of making sure that the meaning and use of formulæ, demonstrated and learned, are thoroughly understood.

Analytical Geometry.—The student is taught the elementary properties of the right line and the conic sections. The course is intended to give a clear conception of the method of Cartesian Analysis, rather than an extensive knowledge of its results.

IX. SCIENCE.

Physics.—The student is thoroughly grounded in the elements of mechanics and physics. The historical beginnings of each subject, and subsequent developments, are sketched in brief lectures. No pains are spared to familiarize the pupil with the laws of these sciences by instruction, experiment, review, and repeated examination. The truth of principles is proved, except where the demonstration involves the higher mathematics. The apparatus of the College is available for class use.

Astronomy.—Descriptive Astronomy discusses the earth's relation to the solar system, the masses, motions, and orbits of each member; the causes and consequences of at least five motions of the earth; general boundaries of the constellation of the Zodiac and Northern Heavens; the accepted theories of comets, meteors, and nebulae. Charts, star maps, globes, and other apparatus are used, and the student is afforded privilege of observations in the College Observatory.

Physical Geography lays a broad foundation for subsequent work in all sciences. Special attention is given to the physical features of the United States. Drawings, photographs, colored and relief maps, and specimens from the Museum, and field-work, aid to make the subject clear.

Geology.—The student is required to master the elements of lithographical, structural, dynamic, and historical Geology. Specimens of various rocks and minerals are handled in class: their composition, characteristics, and place in nature are explained; the structure of the earth in its present form is studied; the history of its evolution, the age and characteristics of its strata, the chief geological features of each continent, and the forces at work are considered.

Botany is taught by text book and field work. A brief outline is first obtained of plant structure, physiology, growth, and reproduction. Lectures explaining special forms of vegetable growth, and the flora of this country, complete the work.

Physiology.—Every effort is made to impart clear ideas of the structure, parts, and functions of the human body. Special attention is given to the chemistry of foods, the laws of health, and the effects of stimulants and narcotics. Suggestions are also made as to poisons and their antidotes, the care of the sick, disinfection and sanitation, and accidents and emergencies. The subject is illustrated by the use of a manikin, charts, and preparations.

Descriptive Chemistry is taught by text-books and lectures. The object of the course is to give the student a general knowledge of the common elements, their sources, uses, compounds, and behavior towards other elements and compounds, and to drill the student in writing formulæ and solving chemical equations. To accomplish this, each student will be expected to spend at least five hours each week in the Laboratory, studying the characteristics and reactions of the elements and their compounds, and performing the experiments outlined in the text and lectures. Notes will be kept by each student, describing the experiment and giving the equation which represents the reaction taking place.

X. ELOCUTION.

This department is open to all members of the Institute. Its aim is the correct and effective utterance of thought. Special attention is given to Voice Culture, Articulation, including Pronunciation and Expression. Weekly Rhetoricals afford opportunity for platform work. Bible Reading and the Study of Shakspeare have places in the course.

PHYSICAL CULTURE

The health of the students is made a prime object of attention, and sanitary requirements are carefully observed. The Institute Gymnasium has been refurnished, and classes in Physical Culture are organized for the benefit of all students. The exercises practiced are such as tend to develop grace and strength. The Institute Campus of six acres furnishes facilities for exercises. Lawn Tennis and other outdoor games are encouraged, and exercise in the open air is required.

ÆSTHETIC CULTURE.

It is intended that the pupils of the Institute shall have the influence unconsciously received from painting, music, and refined surroundings, as well as direct instruction in Literature, Music, and Art. Special instruction in Music and Art is given in the schools devoted to those subjects.

The art collection has been recently enriched by a fine painting, "Tobit's Offering to the Angels," presented by Mrs. H. S. Hopper.

The Venus de Milo and other casts have also been added.

SOCIAL CULTURE.

Pupils are trained to observe the usages of good society. Meetings of various organizations for improvement in Literature, Music, and Art, and receptions in charge of the pupils add variety to student life. No effort is spared to give the pupils the advantages of a cultured home. The purpose is to develop the social life of the institution within itself. Students are not permitted, during term-time, to visit in neighboring towns. The number of social functions during a term is limited, and the consent of the Principal must be obtained for each function at least one month before it is to occur.

RELIGIOUS TRAINING.

The Institute is distinctly Christian in its influence. Morning and evening Chapel in the Hall of the Institute building is attended by all students in the Institute courses, special students, and ladies pursuing studies in the School of Music. College women living in the Institute attend evening Chapel.

Attendance upon Sabbath-school and church services in town is required. All students have weekly recitations in Inductive Bible Study. The students have organized several special classes for Scripture study.

The Young Women's Christian Association, a voluntary society open to the officers and students of the Institute, meets weekly. The regular Tuesday evening prayer-meeting, with other devotional meetings, missionary and temperance work. Special Bible Classes and College Settlement work are in charge of this Association.

SPECIAL BRANCHES.

1. Italian and Spanish may be taken as optional studies, under the instruction of M. Elysée Aviragnet.

All optional studies must be pursued in connection with the regular classes.

2. Bible instruction is given once a week throughout the entire course.

3. Essays are required of all students each month.

4. Two declamations are required of each student during each term.

5. Exercises in either Elocution or Reading are required once a week of all classes.

6. Special individual instruction in Elocution is offered at fifty cents a lesson.

PUBLIC EXERCISES.

THE EXERCISES OF THE GRADUATING CLASS.

The Commencement Exercises of the Institute are held in the College Commencement Hall on Tuesday afternoon of Commencement week.

THE EXERCISES OF THE FOURTH-YEAR CLASS.

The Exercises of the Fourth-Year Class, a combined musical and literary entertainment, are held in the Chapel of the Institute on the last Saturday evening in the month of April.

THE CONTEST IN ELOCUTION.

A contest in Elocution for the prize in that subject, open to all members of the Institute, takes place in Bucknell Hall on the second Saturday evening in the month of May.

ALUMNÆ SOCIETIES.

The Alumnæ Association holds its anniversary on Monday afternoon of Commencement week.

The Lewisburg Alumnæ Club meets at the Institute on the second Tuesday evening of each month during term-time.

The Philadelphia Alumnæ Club is composed of graduates living in and near that city.

STUDENTS' LOAN SOCIETY OF BUCKNELL INSTITUTE

In June, 1887, there was organized in connection with Bucknell Institute an association for the purpose of assisting young women of limited means to obtain an education. A fund was established by gifts from the Alumnæ and friends of the Institute. The money is loaned to beneficiariës, who obligate themselves to return it, without interest, as soon after their graduation as they may be able.

Before the organization of this Society, many promising students at Bucknell Institute were unable to finish the course of study because there was no provision for financial assistance.

Since 1887, but for the help of this Association, some of the best of our graduates would have been deprived of the training which has fitted them for the positions they now fill as teachers, authors, missionaries, and pastors' helpers.

During this first decade twenty-four young ladies have received aid. More than one-fourth of these have returned the loan in full.

The Society meets in the parlors of the Institute on the first Wednesday afternoon after the opening of each term, at half-past two o'clock.

The annual meeting for the election of officers is held at the Institute on the first Wednesday after the opening of the winter term.

The payment of one hundred dollars constitutes the donor a Life Member of the Association; five dollars annually, an Active Member.

Contributions should be sent to the Treasurer, Mrs. T. H. Purdy, Sunbury, Pa. Any information will be given by the President, Mrs. Katharine B. Larison, Cochection Centre, N. Y., or Mrs. John T. Judd, Corresponding Secretary, Lewisburg, Pa.

THE ART DEPARTMENT.

MISS CANDACE WOOD.

The facilities for the study of Art have been greatly increased by the accommodations allotted to this department, in a special studio, which provides such adjustments for admission of light and unencumbered wall surface as to render it adapted for the execution and display of art production.

For such students as desire opportunity for work preparatory to professional study, and for those who wish to fit themselves to give systematic instruction in drawing, the following course is provided :

First Year.—Drawing in Pencil, Charcoal, and Crayon from solid geometrical forms, and portions of the human figure, with the necessary elements of Perspective, the Laws of Proportion, and the Relations of Light and Shade.

Second Year.—Drawings from the Antique in Coal, Crayon, Sepia, or Oil Monochrome ; Modeling in Clay or Wax. Study in Color from Draperies and Still Life.

Third Year.—Composition, Color in Landscape, Pen and Ink Drawing, and Painting in Color from Nature and from Life.

On successful completion of this entire course a certificate of proficiency will be awarded.

Students who do not desire the certificate course, and whose interest is in Decorative Work, will receive the requisite instruction in the latest methods—China Painting, Tapestry, Dyeing, and applied Design in other mediums and materials.

Charges for instruction in Art are as follows :

	Per Annum.
Drawing, ...	$24 00

GENERAL INFORMATION.

ADVANTAGES.

The Bucknell Institute offers to young ladies superior educational advantages. Its location in a University town assures an atmosphere of study and the benefit of numerous literary exercises, lectures, and addresses. The students in the Institute have the use of the Library and apparatus of the Institute, and also of the College Astronomical Observatory, Chemical Laboratory, Museum, and Library, and the various apparatus of the University. An isolated school could not provide for itself these advantages at a cost of less than a quarter of a million dollars.

ADMINISTRATIVE AND OTHER REGULATIONS.

1. The general control of the Institute is vested in the President of the University.
 2. The government of the Institute, subject to such control, rests with the Principal of the Institute.
 3. Young ladies attending the College or School of Music are subject to the rules and regulations governing young ladies attending the Institute.

RULES.

The laws governing the Institute are enacted by the Board of Trustees.

Any officer of the Institute becoming cognizant of violation of regulations by any pupil shall report the same to the Principal of the Institute, who shall make a record of the fact in a book provided for the purpose. Any second violation by the same pupil shall also be reported to the President of the University; and if, in the judgment of the President of the University, and the Principal of the Institute, the offense be of sufficient gravity, the parent or guardian of the offending pupil shall be notified.

Violations of the regulations of the Institute or infraction of the laws of morality are punished by private reprimand, deprivation of privileges, or private withdrawal from the Institute.

The following are selections from the regulations:

1. No student is allowed to leave the Institute grounds at any time without permission from the Principal.

2. Unless for reasons very satisfactory, students from a distance are not permitted to visit their homes, or to leave the Institute to visit with relatives or friends in town. A student will not be permitted to spend the night with friends in town.

3. None but near relatives and friends from a distance are allowed to visit with boarding students, and such visits must be so arranged as not to interfere with the regular hours of study and recitation.

4. Students are not at liberty to invite guests to their private apartments, or to any part of the building, without permission from the Principal.

5. Teachers and Students take their meals at the same table, and no special article of food is served to any one except in case of sickness.

6. Parents and guardians are particularly requested to refrain from furnishing their daughters and wards with eatables of any kind, except fruit.

7. Patrons visiting young ladies at the Institute may be accommodated with board at one dollar a day, if there are vacant rooms. In no case will students be required to give up their rooms to visitors. Visitors will conform to the general regulations of the Institute.

8. Regular and systematic exercise, both in the open air and in the Ladies' Gymnasium, is required of each student.

9. In the Regular Course the number of daily recitations is fixed. Special students are required to engage in such a number of studies as may, in the judgment of the Principal, be sufficient to occupy their time.

10. The character of each recitation is recorded at the time, and the result, together with a statement of the general industry and deportment of the student, is sent to the parent or guardian at the close of the term.

11. The passing grade in any study is a definite one, and must be attained before promotion can be secured.

12. No room can be reserved for a student unless definitely engaged.

13. The books and current periodicals of the College and Institute Libraries are available for all students.

14. ARTICLES REQUIRED.—Each student should be provided with an umbrella, waterproof, overshoes, table napkins, towels, covers for bureau and washstand, counterpanes, sheets, and pillow-cases. The size of pillow is twenty by thirty inches; of the bureau, forty-three by nineteen inches; of the washstand, thirty-two by sixteen inches.

Every article of clothing should be marked with the owner's name in full.

It is especially desired that the dress of pupils shall be simple and inexpensive. Wherever practicable, the wardrobe should be prepared at home, to avoid frequent visits to town.

PRIZES.

I. BUCKNELL PRIZES.

The following prizes were founded by William Bucknell, of Philadelphia.

1. A First Senior Prize, to be awarded to the member of the graduating class who, being excellent in scholarship during the Senior Year, shall prepare the best essay.

2. A Second Senior Prize, to be awarded to the member of the graduating class, who, being excellent in scholarship during the Senior Year, shall prepare the second best essay.

For the year 1900 the First Prize of twenty-four dollars was awarded to Louise Voorhis Warriner and the Second Prize of sixteen dollars to Margaret Stein.

3. A Third Senior Prize to be awarded to the member of the graduating class who shall attain the highest grade in the studies of the Senior Year. This excludes all grades for studies not in the Senior Year, all Senior studies taken before the Senior Year, and all studies not taken in the Institute.

For the year 1900 this prize of twenty-five dollars was awarded Louise Voorhis Warriner.

4. A First Fourth Year Prize, to be awarded to the member of the Fourth Year Class who, being excellent in scholarship during the year, shall prepare the best Fourth Year essay.

5. A Second Fourth Year Prize, to be awarded to the member of the Fourth Year Class who, being excellent in scholarship during the year, shall prepare the Second best Fourth Year essay.

For the year 1900 these prizes were awarded as follows: Ruth Leshner, received the First Prize of twenty dollars, Ruth Stephens the Second Prize of fifteen dollars.

The fund consists of $2,000, the income from which is to be devoted to these prizes annually in a manner more particularly defined in the donor's communication to the Trustees.

Themes for the Bucknell Essay Prizes will be drawn from the following works:

For 1901—Shakspeare's Julius Cæsar; George Eliot's Silas Marner; Tennyson's The Holy Grail; Browning's Evelyn Hope.

For 1902—Shakspeare's Merchant of Venice; Macaulay's Essay on Addison; Scott's The Lady of the Lake; Arnold's Sohrab and Rustum.

II. THE ELOCUTION PRIZE.

A Prize in Elocution is offered to the student who shall give the best recitation at the Annual Contest.

For 1900 the Prize was awarded to Bessie Mahaffey and Nellie Goddard.

EXPENSES.

I. Boarding Students.—The regular charge for Boarding Students is $230.00 per annum; the other expenses, spending-money, books, and clothing, will vary with the individual student.

An additional charge will be made where one student occupies a double room alone in the Main Building. Extra charge will also be made for front corner rooms in the West Wing.

Students are charged extra for the washing of dresses, and for the washing of more than 12 pieces per week.

The rooms in the Bucknell College are rented in suites, for which there is an extra charge, depending on the location.

	Per Annum.
Suite on the first floor, ...	$39 00
Suite on the second floor, ...	40 00
Suite on the third floor, ...	28 00

Each suite contains a study and two sleeping apartments and has accommodations for four persons, and the charge will be divided accordingly.

Students will be charged for damage done to furniture or to the room they occupy.

II. Day Students.—The charges for Day students amount to $55.00 per annum.

III. Extra Studies.—The charges for Elocution, Drawing and Painting, and Music, will be found under those titles.

Bills are payable strictly in advance, on the 15th of September, January, and April.

Checks and drafts should be drawn in favor of the Registrar of the University.

No bill will be made out for a shorter period than one term; and no deductions will be made except in the charge of board in case of a prolonged absence on account of sickness.

The expenses, for Music, Printing, and other charges ordinarily incurred at Examination and on Anniversary occasions, are paid by the class or classes which incurs the expenses.

The fee for Graduation and Diploma is $5.

Free scholarships, covering tuition, are awarded to children of Ministers of the Gospel in actual service.

For information respecting the Institute, address the Principal, Miss Eveline Judith Stanton, Ph. M., or the President of the University.

COURSES OF STUDY.

The School of Music is under the special charge of a French artist, whose musical education was received in the Conservatory of Music in Paris, and who has had a large and successful experience in teaching. He is supported by competent assistants, and the course is designed to afford every needed facility for the study of Vocal and Instrumental Music. An ample supply of pianos from the best makers is provided for practice, including a Concert Grand.

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC.

COURSE FOR THE PIANO-FORTE OF FOUR YEARS FOR GRADUATION.

The pupil is required to pursue the most thoroughly approved modern system of technical training. After the first rudiments have been mastered, the course of instruction leads to the practice of etudes, designed to unite with purely technical drill the requirement of artistic style and expression.

PIANO.

FIRST YEAR.

New England Conservatory method, 1 and 2 parts; Le Couppey Ecole du Mécanisme; Duvernoy Ecole du Mécanisme, books 1, 2, and 3; Kohler, op. 157; Czerny, fifty Studies from op. 261, 821, 599, and 139, ed. of Heinrich Germer; Meyer, Progressive and Melodious Studies; Robert Sutton's "The Elements of the Theory of Music"; Brown, Musical Biographies of Composers.

SECOND YEAR.

Plaidy, Technical Studies; Czerny, Polyrhythmic Studies from op. 139, 834, 335, and 299; Czerny, Studies of Ornamentation from op. 355 and 833; Czerny, twelve Studies from op. 299 and 740; Czerny, thirty studies from op. 299 and 834 (Henrich Germer Edition); Heller, Expression and Rhythm, op. 135; Kullak, Preparatory Octave Studies; Homer Norris's Practical Harmony; History of Music.

THIRD YEAR.

Clementi, "Gradus and Parnassum;" Tausig, Daily Studies; Kohler Cramer Studies, books 1, 2, and 3; Czerny, thirty-six Octave Studies from op. 821, 335, 740, and 834 (Henrich Germer Edition); Norris, Harmony; Dr. Marx, Universal School of Music.

FOURTH YEAR.

Bach, two and three-voiced invention; Czerny, twenty studies from op. 325; Czerny, nineteen Studies from op. 740; Czerny, Toccata, op. 92 (Heinrich Germer Edition); Kullak, Octave Studies; Chopin, Studies; Liszt, Studies; Bach, Well-Tempered Clavichord (preludes and figures); Kullak, Art of Touch; Symphonies of Haydn, Mozart, and Beethoven.

During the year, selected Studies from Bertini, Rossellen, Moscheles, Heez, and Thalberg are also given to the pupils.

That the æsthetic development may be proportionately secured, the above exercises are supplemented by the study of the works of the best composers.

COURSE FOR PIPE ORGAN.

The course is based upon:

Dudley Buck Pedal Studies, and upon works of Rink, Batiste, Lefébure—Wely, Guilmant, and others.

COURSE FOR THE VIOLIN.

This course is based upon:

Dancla's School of Mechanism; De Beriot's Violinist's First Guide; Fiorillo's Studies; Alard's Studies; Kreutzer's Studies, etc., with selections from the compositions of the best writers for this instrument.

COURSE FOR THE VIOLONCELLO.

Instruction for this instrument is based upon:

Méthod Pratique pour le Violoncello, par S. Lee; studies by Piatti and Romberg.

COURSE FOR VIOLA.

Bruni's Method and Studies, by Campagnoli.

COURSE FOR CONTREBASSO (DOUBLE BASS).

Bottesini's Method.

VOICE CULTURE.

COURSE OF THREE YEARS FOR GRADUATION.

Careful instruction is given in the use of the voice, and the correct manner of producing purity of tone. To secure control over the voice and gain for it flexibility, fullness, and durability, thorough drill is afforded in such technical exercises as:

Lamperti's and Vannuccini's Italian Methods, Vocalises of Sieber, Concone, Tütgen, Vaccai, Bonaldi, Bordogni, Marchesi, and Panofka; Lamperti's Studies in Bravura Singing. For expression and the development of a pure style, practice is afforded in singing the best English, German, Italian, and French Songs, Operatic Arias, and Solos from the Oratorios.

COURSE IN HARMONY.

It is urgently recommended that the study of Harmony be included in the other musical work, inasmuch as a sound knowledge of its principles is essential to the success of all vocalists and instrumentalists. The text-books used are: Bussler's Harmonic Exercises, Homer Norris's Practical Harmony, Richter's Counterpoint, and Reicha's Course of Musical Composition.

THE ORCHESTRA.

CLASSES FOR ALL ORCHESTRAL INSTRUMENTS.

Students who are sufficiently advanced in any of the above musical instruments will have opportunity of practice in string quartettes, trios, concertos, and symphonies of Beethoven, Mozart, and Haydn.

BAND.

A Brass Band, consisting of about twenty pieces, has been organized, and is led by M. Elysée Aviragnet, Director of the School of Music. The Band meets weekly in the Laboratory for rehearsal, and furnishes street and concert music for University and town exercises.

RECITALS.

On the Friday evening prior to Commencement week a public recital of the School of Music is held in Bucknell Hall.

The public examination of those who desire certificates of proficiency is held in Bucknell Hall the Saturday afternoon before commencement. At this time each pupil plays or sings two pieces of high grade, and reads an essay on some subject connected with music.

TUITION.

Tuition is charged for instruction in Music, as follows :

	Per Annum.
Vocal music, ...	$60 00
Music on Piano, or Organ, ...	60 00
Harmony, in Class, ...	18 00
Harmony, private lessons, ...	60 00
Use of Instrument for practice, ...	10 00
Guitar, in Class, ...	15 00

	Per Lesson.
Special individual instruction in Music, ...	$1 00

No reduction will be made except in case of protracted illness.
Instruction in the Orchestra and in Harmony is free to pupils otherwise studying music.

RESIDENCE OF MUSIC PUPILS.

Young women pupils in music reside in the Institute, and are under the care of the Principal of the Institute. Students pursuing any of the Institute courses can also take studies in music. Those who wish to make music a specialty are recommended to take at least one study each term in Language or Literature.
The regular charges for pupils in music, residing in the Institute, including one literary subject per term, are $195 per annum. This does not include charges for instruction in music, which are determined by the number of lessons taken per week.

GRADUATION IN MUSIC.

Students who complete any of the Courses in Music and pass the examinations, receive a certificate of proficiency. Students will not be ranked as Seniors in Music until they have passed an examination before the Committee. Besides the examination before the Committee for admission to the Senior Class, students will be required to pass a preliminary examination at the opening of the Spring term, and a final examination before Commencement Week. Students will not be admitted to the final examination unless they have passed the preliminary examinations.

THE AVIRAGNET PRIZES.

Professor Elysée Aviragnet has established two prizes, as follows:

1. A Prize of ten dollars for excellence in music.

For 1900 this prize was awarded to Pearl Snyder.

2. A Prize of ten dollars for excellence in French.

For 1900 this prize was awarded to Mary Halfpenny.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Young ladies attending upon the School of Music are subject to the administration and other regulations enacted by the Board of Trustees for the government of students in the Institute. These rules are given on page 139 of this Catalogue. Students of Music are also entitled to all the privileges of the Institute.

For information respecting the School of Music address the Director, Elysee Aviragnet, Mus. Doc., or the President of the University.
